Iler Reunion

A Iler get together is going to be
For all your cuzzins and kinfolks to see

June 14 , the party starts at eleven
To see that many Ilers you will think you are in heaven

PRESBY
At Hickory church we will meet and eat
Then we will play across the street

RTE 62 EAST
FROM BEAVER DAM

There will be horse shoes, volleyball and games to play
If the tractor starts we will ride on the hay

Sandbox, wading pools so don't wear your best
We will put your energy to the test

We all know the Iler's ,they act like such fools
Let's have a talent contest, there is no rules

Bring your old photos and things that shine
You show me yours and I will show you mine

The parking is free, but don't trust the valet
This is Ohio Co. not the ballet

Bring your chairs if you want to set
We will have a good time on that you can bet

It is potluck , so bring a dish
Papertowels or soda if you wish

It is for family here and away
We hope you come, we hope you stay
It's a time for remembering the past
For meeting the new one, we will have a blast
So let's get together while we still can Believe it or not, we are all one clan!

Mort will come from Bloomington
He can pick you up in Indianapolis or Evansville. I can get you a free room in Owensboro
then and I will take you to site.
Hope you can come

And all of the Ohio County Iler's

the Beaver Dam Hotel Cafe is now located. He [illegible]ed as County Court Clerk for two terms, from 1930 to 1938. He ran for office again but was defeated. He had a restaurant in Hartford for several years, called "The Car Barn Cafe." He married Miss Ruth Hammond, who taught school at Number 19 School for around seven or eight years. Ruth died in 1962, and Dauphin died October 19, 1977. They are buried in Oakwood Cemetery at Hartford.

BOBBY G. ILER 15946

Robert E. Iler was known as Bobby G. Iler. While staying with some cousins in Owensboro, he tended bar, and became a druggist. He came to Rockport and with William, his brother, went into the drug business. After they ended the partnership, Will went into the General Merchandise business, in the building where his father-in-law, Henry Young had recently retired.

Bobby G. opened a drug store between Mill Street and the railroad, where he remained several years. He married Georgia Reid, daughter of Lycurgus Reid. Georgia died in 1916, and he remarried. His second wife opened a ladies ready to wear apparel shop, in a building across Main Street from the bank building, in 1925. Bobby G. was on the town board in 1903, and may have served at other times. He was Police Judge in 1916.

Bobby G. and Georgia are both buried in the Rockport Cemetery.

ARTHUR T. ILER 15932

Arthur Triplett Iler was born in 1900 in Rockport, the son of William and Nellie Young Iler. Arthur started school in Rockport in 1906, just after the school had burned. The children were entered into school, in various buildings in town, and he went his first year in a saloon on Main Street, between Mill Street and the railroad, where Everett Smith was his teacher.

In 1914 Will Iler died, leaving a widow and seven children. Arthur held several jobs before joining the army in 1918. When he returned his family was living in Beaver Dam. He came to Rockport where he bought a grocery store from the Mason brothers, 15892 Stellie and Byron, who were cousins of his. This store was located on the corner of 15891 Main and Mill Streets, and was known as Arthur T. Iler's Kash Korner. He first sold only groceries, and later added furniture. An advertisement in the county newspaper in 1923, lists clothing, groceries and furniture. After awhile, he decided he could not make a living there, so he sold out and went to Central City, where he opened a clothing store. Soon he realized there was no future in this, so he sold out, and entered law school. He worked while attending school. Upon returning to Central City, he opened a law practice, and in 1947 ran for County Attorney, but was defeated. He later ran for the office again, and was elected. In 1956 he became County Judge of Muhlenberg County, and remained in that office until 1976. He was semi-retired for a year, before he retired due to failing eyesight.

Arthur T. was married in 1927 to Katherine Wallace of Central City. They had two sons, William P. who is deceased, and Richard W. who is an attorney in Louisville.

Arthur T. remembers many things about the years he spent in Rockport. He nas a great sense of humor, and shares many events, which happened in the past. He and his wife live at Central City.

EUGENE P. JAMES

Eugene P. James was born in Ohio County in 1844. In 1864 he returned from the army, and engaged in mining. He advanced to General Superintendent of General Buell's works at Airdrie. In 1880, he moved stock to Rockport, and continued in business in the company of his brother, P.W. James, until January of 1885. He married November 28, 1867, to Sarah P. Kimmel of Muhlenberg County.

CHARLES W. LAYTON, M.D.

Charles W. Layton, M.D., was born in McLean County, Kentucky, June 13, 1839, and was the son of William A. and Anna B. Layton, both of whom were natives of Daviess County, Kentucky, and of English descent. Dr. Layton received a good common school and academic education, and worked on his father's farm, and as a teacher, until he was

John A. Woodburn, born around 1829, and his first wife America, were in Rockport in 1880, and he was operating a lumber mill. Apparently he was still in the same business in 1890, as he was taxed for an engine. In 1881, he bought a floating stave mill.

One of his sons, Elijah C., was born around 1861, and around 1887, married Alice Campfield. They were parents of Fred G. Woodburn, who married first, Elizabeth Sneddon, second Myrtle Young, and third Jewell Curtis. All three preceeded him in death. Ruth married Dave Sneddon, and Rose married Archie Maddox. There were two others, Pearl and Albert. Elijah C. was grandfather of Kelly Maddox and Betty Maddox Sublett, and great grandfather of Bobby Ingram, all residents of Rockport.

Another son of John and America, was James Henry Woodburn, who married Rosa Campfield in 1880. He was owner of a livery stable in Rockport. They were parents of Ben, John and Harry. Alice and Rosa Campfield, were daughters of Martin and Arena Angeline Blevins Campfield, who bought and sold property regularly in Rockport. They were owners of Campfield Blacksmith Shop, among other things. Minnie Campfield who married Ezekiel Graves, and Nancy, wife of James Durall, were also daughters of Martin and Arena. Their son Luther, married Mattie Harrell.

Elizabeth Sneddon, wife of Fred Woodburn, and the mother of his children, and Dave Sneddon, who married Ruth Woodburn, were children of Richard Sneddon and Mrs. Jane Patterson Sneddon, who were both born in Scotland. Jane Patterson had three other daughters, by Patterson, Jean, Maggie and Mary E. "Mannie," who married William Wilson. They were owners of a restaurant and bakery.

Richard Sneddon's brother David, had two daughters, Isabell, who married a Hughes and Mary Ellen, who married Roy Deeter, a merchant in Rockport, and a son Robert, also a merchant. Robert Sneddon and Roy Deeter were owners of a restaurant, known as "Rob and Roy's." They were also in other businesses through the years.

Henry J. Young, was a drygoods merchant in Rockport in 1880. In 1882, he closed his store, but reopened in the same location on lots 61 and 62 in 1884. In 1900 he was still in business.

16317 Henry J. and his wife Sallie, 16318 married around 1869 and were parents of five children, of whom four were living in 1900. A daughter, Nellie married William Iler, and they were parents of Judge Arthur T. Iler. C.T. "Benny" Young, a Beaver Dam business man, is a descendant of H.J. and Nellie Young. 15922

When the Youngs went out of business, Nellie and William Iler opened a business, in the same location.

Sallie Young died in 1913, and Henry J. in 1918. They are buried in the Rockport Cemetery.

THE ANDREW SMITH FAMILY

Andrew Smith was born in 1811, and married Sally Mary in 1836. Their children were Hardin, Logan, Isaac, Landon, Willis, Richard, Matilda Eudaley, and Mary Brown.

The Smiths were from Tennessee. When the Civil War broke out, Andrew and the older sons left the farming to Sally Mary, the daughters-in-law and the young children and came to Kentucky, to join forces. After the war ended, the men returned to Tennessee, and brought their families to a farm near Rockport.

In 1869, Andrew, on his way to Rockport, to have a plow sharpened, was caught in a windstorm, and his leg was crushed, when a tree fell on him. He was carried home on a door, where he bled to death.

In 1874, Isaac, the sixth child of Andrew and Mary Sally, and his wife found themselves, as part of a wagon train headed for Texas, with Sally Mary leading the way, riding her yellow Sussex mare "Lucey," with a suckling colt following.

Andrew Smith was buried at the West Providence Cemetery. His stone is a hand carved one, thought to have been made by the Shakers. It has a Shaker emblem, and the following verse: "To think that while you're weeping here, Grandpa was very s[illegible] with his children. One night, when they were lo[illegible] rowdy, he told them if they didn't get quiet, the little red devil would come and get them. Soon after telling them this, someone rattled the door. When Grandma opened the door, there stood a little monkey in a red suit. It had escaped from a carnival. The children remained quiet after this.

Minnie Campfield Graves, was a wonderful lady. She was always there, when anyone needed her. She never complained, and was very patient. She cooked, sewed and canned lots of food. She made our clothes, and quilts, and did handwork. She always had extra food for the hobos, who rode the trains near her home. She never fussed at us children. She was born September 14, 1869, and died May 20, 1944.

THE ILER FAMILY

Robert T. Iler, was owner and operator of the first hotel in Rockport. During the Civil War, he and his brother Tom, decided to join the confederate army. They set out on their trip south. They crossed the river at Ceralvo, where the family lived. Making their way into Nelson, in Muhlenberg county, they came to a grocery store. Robert went inside to ask directions, and a beautiful young girl was in the store. After she left, he asked the merchant who she was, and was told that she was Sally Sharp, who was raising her five brothers and sisters. Robert told his brother to continue the journey without him, and he would join the home guard. His intentions were to remain and woo the young lady, with intentions of marrying her. Tom continued his trip southward, until he came to Elkton, Kentucky, and there he found a young lady, whom he married. Robert did marry Sally Sharp. 15843

Tom and his wife Elizabeth had several children. One son 15850 Robert P., married Miss Elizabeth Tilford, and they were parents of Hershell (Nippy) Iler, who still lives in Rockport and is one of the oldest citizens.

Robert T. and Sally Iler were parents of several children. Among their children were Robert E. (Bobby G.), who was a well known druggist in town, William P. was a merchant, and married Nellie Young. Will and Nellie were parents of William Gordon, Charles, Mary C., Katherine (Kathy), Henry C., Morton C. and Arthur T. Iler.

Will Iler died in 1914, and Nellie died in 1963. Both are buried in the Rockport Cemetery. Will was Bank President around 1910, and was instrumental in getting the Chemical plant, in Rockport about that time. He served on the town council in 1899, and perhaps at other times, and was active in community affairs.

The Iler family lived in a two story house, located on what was then Main Street. It is now the home of Chris and Mary Lou Brown Carter, where Mary Lou operates a beauty shop, in the back of the house.

THE JACKSON FAMILY

Dr. S.A. Jackson and his family, were in Rockport as early as 1880. Dr. Jackson was a medical doctor, and practiced in the Rockport area. He was also a farmer, and shipped crops by boat, and was owner of a large tobacco warehouse. He was involved in numerous community projects. He and his wife Elizabeth Louvillian, were parents of

In October of 1915 an article in the Republican, stated that five of the of the Possum Hunters, had been indicted, and possibly the others would not hav tried. The officers and people of the county, felt this would break up the gar Judge remarked, that before the penitentiary terms of these was over, they woul that the county of Ohio, could not stand any longer, for the cruel and inhuman that had been committed in that section of the state.

Men were often forced to join the mob. If one refused to join or tried t they were punished. According to Mrs. Inez Curtis, her brother Oscar Bowen, wa on the steps of the Coal Company Store, near his home at Echols, and was shot b refused to join the gang. Two of his mother's brothers, received prison senten their part in the attack.

stored by Hocker and Company, and Charlie M. Taylor's farming implements. Also a large blacksmith shop of Delmer Williams was consumed by the blaze. The flames consumed other smaller buildings. Only the bucket brigade saved the Emma Barnes home. There were many injuries and heavy losses with only $800 insurance on one of the buildings.

The first railroad station was built south of the tracks by the copperas ditch. The railroad company also built and operated a hotel nearby. The managers were the Poynter family from Tennessee. They were of French origin. Their daughter Tenne was married to 34831 34830 John B. Bir. Their graves are in the Baptist Church Cemetery.

The Iler family later owned the hotel. Mrs. Iler's family was her staff. The first year home economics was offered in the high school, students were surprised to see one of the Iler sons enrolled in a cooking class. His mother reasoned that they might be in the hotel business for some time and he should learn the art of cooking.

Across the street on the corner of Young and South Main was yet another livery stable. The town was a base for the salesmen who traveled by train and were called "Drummers". Occasionally they hired "hacks" or "rigs" and took their samples to outlying stores. On one occasion a stranger came to town, a geologist, and rented a riding horse for the day. . . When he returned to the stable late in the afternoon the owner felt that the horse had been ridden too hard and abused. An argument resulted. Both men had been drinking and both were armed. . . The stranger was shot and killed. The court ruling was that the owner had used his gun in self defense. (I believe he was my great great-uncle)

By 1889, the Commercial Hotel was in business at the corner of Main and First Streets. It was a

D. Gordon Young was associated with the towns business interests for many years. D. Gordon grew up in the Rockport community and worked on river boats, consequently, boats were his life long hobby. But Gordon came to Beaver Dam in 1899 and set up a small printing shop on Main Street - south of the railroad. With himself as publisher and George Long as editor, he put out the publication called "The New Wrinkle."

It is noted that in Vol. I, issue 8, November 18, 1899, that the town's trustees were: W. H. Austin, F. Monroe, Dr. W. T. McKenny, and Kelly Williams. Mention was made of the illness of Miss Eva Hines of Rockport. Eva was later known as Mrs. Gordon Young. . .

The little newspaper sold for one cent per copy and was published until Mr. Long left town and Mr. Young turned to bank printing (statements, blank checks, etcetera) The business became known as the Paragon Printing Company. The work went into every state of the union as well as Cuba and Alaska.

D. Gordon Young later went into the lumber business, and his brother J. R. Young, experienced in railroad employment, came to work with him - taking over the printing business.

Once again, D. Gordon found another interest - farming. At one time owned several thousand acres though he never did extensive farming as such.

34856 Eldred Young, oldest son of D. Gordon, recalls a town-saying, "if a night fire occurred in Beaver Dam before one or two o'clock in the morning - John H. Barnes and D. Gordon Young were always the first ones there." The reason was obvious - all they had to do was close the doors of their respective business, turn the key and walk down the street.. which may explain their financial success.

Possibly the oldest and most successful Beaver Dam institution has been the Beaver Dam Deposit Bank. It was organized in 1890 with I. P. Barnard as president and John Hiram Barnes as cashier. The Barnes family were among the pioneers who settled in the Goshen community and have been associated with the progress and growth of Beaver Dam since its beginning. John H. Barnes became the bank president. He married Margaret Eblin of Carrollton and their entire family has been active in banking through the years. A recently published history tells the long and interesting story of the institutions continued success.

It was about 1912 that D. Gordon Young first generated electricity using the steam engine already in operation for his printing business. In so doing he furnished electricity for his home and a few surrounding buildings. This service was continued until the Beaver Dam Milling Company began furnishing the town about 1920 and continued until Kentucky Utilities took over in 1929. Their records show that T. E. Cooper was their first customer. Making a deposit of $3.00.

The Beaver Dam Milling Company - always progressive, demonstrated the first radio in town in 1926. The set had earphones and was viewed as another "wonder" by the townspeople.

The Great Depression took a heavy toll on the town's economy. The closing of the Beaver Dam Coal Company was especially disastrous to the Taylor Mines community and Beaver Dam as well. With the coming of WPA and other public works projects - safe

Mae Bir, an honor graduate from the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music was the head of a strong music department. Later Mary Stewart held that position before going on the staff of the Louisville Conservatory.

Miss Dora Gibson was one of the best-known and respected teachers of the elementary grades. Many teachers joined the ranks during the following years - all well-trained college graduates. Many decided to make Beaver Dam their home.

The name, West Kentucky Seminary, carried over even after the institution became a standard high school. Lummie Taylor and Wallace Chick of the class of 1920 are among the last to wear rings with the insignia of WKS.

It was around 1910 that students in WKS developed a basketball team that became known as "The INVINCIBLE FIVE". In the beginning they had no coach - they went into their own huddle and did it their way. They

During the 40 years that the Beaver Dam Grade and High School remained an independent system, the school heads were ever mindful of widening the horizons of the students. Parades and downtown marches were arranged on special occasions such as "meeting the trains" when state and national candidates would pause during campaigns - speaking from the rear coach of the train. . .

There were solemn occasions during World War I and the jubilant victory on November 11, 1918. Everybody wore and waved flags on that day. For many years a sturdy maple tree grew in the school yard - planted in commemoration of that date. A returned veteran, Clyde Pease, made the dedication speech.

Out of town teachers brought wonder and delight into the school year, and

The Winter of 1883 saw the flooding of the Green River, upon whose banks the Fulkersons lived. The water flooded the house and shortly thereafter, Ellen contracted pneumonia which caused her death. To this union was born four children: William Edgeworth, Mary Francis, Verda, and Wayne.

X Ellen Sharp was the sis. of Sally Mary (Sharp) Iler, the grandmother of Arthur Iler; James Wickliffe 'Jim Wick' Sharp; and David Sharp. Ellen was the grand daughter of Isaac Davis, the 1st Judge of MCK and one of the three Commissioners appointed by Gov. James Garrard to layout and form Muhlenberg Co. Ellen was the grand niece of the pioneer, Moses Wickliffe, who was the brother of Mrs. Isaac Davis, both of whom were cousins of Gov. Charles A. Wickliffe (KY) and relatives of his son, Gov. Robert Wickliffe (LA), and Charles A.'s grandson, Gov. J. C. W. Beckham. Ellen was a direct descendant of Robert fitz Walter, Baron of Dumow, leader of the Barons against King John of England and an author of the Magna Charta in 1215; King Charles IV of France; Rollo the Dane, first Duke of Normandy; Charlemagne, Emperor of the Western Roman Empire; John Wickliffe, first translator of the Bible into English and first leader of the Reformation (several hundred years before Martin Luther); and many other persons of high birth and great historical significance.[370]

After the death of Ellen, James and his children, went to live with his parents, William H. and Fanny R. (McConnel) Fulkerson. Sometime after James remarried, the family moved back to their farm, along the Green River. James and his family appear to have lived at his parents house off and on for the next several years. See p. 161 for children.

Deulah Mae (Fulkerson) Devine recalls that her parents were very close friends with 'Uncle Mitt' and that she and her family would often visit him at his house. Their children (Kimbley):

Nannie lived in Rockport, KY; it was her first marriage and it was held at the Baptist Church in Rockport in the presence of J. H. Randolph and S. D. Robertson. She was the daughter of Peter Caimes, b. 1840 in Ireland; d. 18 Mar 1907. Her mother b. 22 Dec 1848 in Scotland; d. 7 Apr 1918. Nannie served as the Church organist.[371]

'Uncle San,' as he was called, was born and raised in OCK, near Ceralvo on the Green River. He remained with his father on the farm until he was twenty-one years old, at which time he started out on his own. He carried with him the same rugged honesty that had characterized his youth, and which had made him so popular with his people, and even for his well merited success. He filled several positions of honor and trust, with great credit to himself and benefit to his country. He was elected Constable in the old Centertown District in 1875 and remained one term. During the years, 1877-

The Davis Family

David Davis[1], b. Wales. The immigrant to MD.[454] His son:
William Davis[2], b. ca. 1695;[455] d. by 28 Apr 1756, prob. Prince William Co., VA; m. Ellen Bland. William was a business associate of Ellen's brothers, William and James. Richard Bland and William Davis were listed among those who were issued land patents in Prince William County from 1707-1722. On 11 May 1741, William's two sons, William, Jr. and Isaac, signed an agreement, recorded in the Prince William Co., VA courthouse, for the division of 607 acres on Brushy Run patented to William Davis, Sr., their father from the proprietor and willed to them jointly by their father. On 28 Apr 1756, Isaac[3] signed, as surety, the bond of his mother who served as executrix of the will of her husband, his father, William Davis, deceased. It is not clear whether William, Sr. had d. by 11 May 1741 or whether he had his sons sign this to prevent a dispute after his death. One suspects, with the limited evidence now available, that the latter is true. Another writer tells us that William d. in 1756, in Prince William Co. In his will, which has since been lost, he names his wife, Ellen Bland Davis and his son, Isaac, as executors.[456] His sons:

1. William, Jr.[3]
2. Joshua[3],[457]
3. Isaac[3], b. Prince William Co., VA; d. prior to 27 May 1771, Prince William, VA; m. by or bef. 1749, Elizabeth Kincheloe, Prince William Co. Isaac d. in his burning house, trying to save his money and valuable papers contained therein. His plantation lay on both sides of Occuquan River near Davis' Ford in Prince William Co., 5 miles from Manassas, VA. Isaac served as Deputy Sheriff of Prince William Co. (1759) and as a vestryman of Fredericksville (1762). He signed as surety the bond of Daniel Kincheloe on 28 Jul 1759; as surety for the bond of Robert Wickliffe and Daniel Kincheloe, executors of Elijah Wickliffe, deceased, 5 Mar 1764. On 24 May 1762, he took deed from William Peake for land on waters of Occuquan River in Prince William Co. Isaac is listed a number of other times as surety for bonds in Prince William Co. Elizabeth Kincheloe b. ca. 1726/8, Richmond, VA. A few years after which, her parents moved to Stafford (now Prince William Co.), VA. Elizabeth, the dau. of John and Elizabeth (Canterbury) Kincheloe, m. (2) prior 4 Jan 1780, Rhodham Blansett. Her parents were m. ca. 1718, Richmond, VA. John Kincheloe, the son of Cornelius Kincheloe, signed his will 16 Mar 1746; it was recorded 25 Mar 1746, in Prince William Co., VA. Cornelius Kincheloe, was recorded in Richmond Co., VA on 6 Dec 1693, 1694 and 26 Jun 1695 as a planter living on land on Totuskey Creek, in North Farnham Parish. It should be noted that this part of Richmond Co. had been a part of Old Rappahannock Co. until the latter was abolished in 1692. The name of the wife of Cornelius and mother of John has not determined at this time. Her surname is thought by many to have been Williams, since Cornelius served as a surety for Shadrach Williams in 1694. Shadrach, who also sold 100 acres of land on the west side of Totuskey Creek, 26 Jun 1695, was the uncle of Elizabeth Canterbury (that is, the brother of Elizabeth's mother, Ruth Williams). Ruth m. Cornelius' son John. Being the uncle of Elizabeth seems unlikely to be sufficient reason for selecting Cornelius as Shadrach's surety. It may well be, or even likely, that Cornelius was related to Shadrach, by marriage or otherwise. On 14 Oct 1660, Hugh Kinselo m. Marion Haley in Northumberland Co., VA. It has been assumed by many, without proof, that these were the parents of Cornelius Kincheloe. Cornelius had another son, thought by many to have been named Cornelius, Jr., who had a son, Peter, from whom many of the Kincheloe name descend. There is a great deal of speculation on the origin of the name Kincheloe. Some have argued that it is Celtic, others Scotch-Irish, some that it is English, while one author suggested that a Scot named Low m. a Dutch girl named Kinche, thus beginning the name. At this time, no proof of the name of the immigrant has been found, nor has the origin of this name. Further, it is impossible to determine when the first Kincheloe arrived in VA. It has been traditionally accepted that he was a member of the English gentry and arrived ca. 1670. One report is that the original Kincheloe was a Cavalier, who had fought against Cromwell. After the defeat of the Royalists and the death of King Charles I, this Kincheloe fled to VA. Another tradition states that the original Kincheloe fled to Ireland after the death of Charles I, remaining there for some time before immigrating to VA, because of the religious and political restrictions.[458]

Her father, Roger Williams lived in Northumberland Co., VA as early as 1665, and was a plaintiff in that Co. in 1669. His will dated 26 Feb 1675 was recorded in Old Rappahannock Co. (now Richmond Co.) VA , Jun 1677. He bequeathed to his son Shadrack Williams, b. 1 Feb 1673, his dau., Rebecca, b. 20 Jan 1675 and his wife, Joane (Frith), whom he m. 166_. Joane was the dau. of Nathaniel Frith, whose will was signed in 1676 and recorded in Old Rappahannock Co., VA., in which he bequeathed to, among others, his dau. Joane Williams. Joane (Frith) Williams Wills Lloyd's will was signed 8 Jan 1703 and recorded, in Rappahannock Co., VA., 2 Feb 1703. In her will, she bequeathed to her ". . .dau. Ruth Canterbury and her husband, John Kincheloe. . ." and to her ". . .son, Shadrack Williams."[459] Joane Frith m. (3) 24 Apr 1684, Lewis Lloyd, who mentions in his will his step-daughter, Ruth Williams. It is a Kincheloe family tradition that John Canterbury was a close relative of Lord Canterbury. Others have reported that John was of English royal blood. There were several Canterbury families in early Stafford Co., which is now Prince William Co., VA.[460]

On 28 Apr 1771, William, Jr. as he was sometimes known, conveyed to his brothers and sisters (Presely [sic], Cornelius, Isaac, Travis, John, Warren, Jane and Mary) lands of their father, Isaac, deceased. On 7 May 1797, William assigned his claim for bounty land to this brother, Jesse. William had a bounty claim due to his service in the Revolutionary War; he is also listed as a pensioner for his service as a soldier. In 1835, he gave oath of his brother's (Jesse) service during the American Revolution as a private, a recruiter for the Army, for wintering at Valley Forge, and that Jesse later served as a Captain.

Davis served as a Lt. in the 2nd VA Regt. in the Continental Line. This is most likely John^4, son of Isaac. His cousin, Hugh Davis, made affidavit that John had willed his bounty land to his sole heir, his son, William.[463]

4. Presley^{4}, b. ca. 1756, Prince William Co., VA; d. 1777, Battle of Long Island. Revolutionary soldier. One Presely (sic) Davis, likely our subject, served as Sgt. in 3rd VA. Regt. of the Continental Line; an award of bounty land was made for that service.[464]

5. Cornelius^{4}, d. 1 Sep 1782, Ft. Kincheloe (Nelson Co.) KY; m. Eleanor (____). Cornelius was one of the siblings, to whom William, Jr. conveyed, by deed, several tracts of land, which had been willed by their father, Isaac.[465] Cornelius had moved, with his wife and children, to the "Davis Settlement where his brothers, Jesse and Isaac, along with his uncle, William Kincheloe, had settled ca.1779-1782. This settlement was located in Nelson Co. on Simpson's Creek, near Chaplin Fork. It was in this area that Wm. Kincheloe and his nephews built what was known as either 'Fort Kincheloe' or 'Burnt Station,' in which resided six or seven families living in a cluster of log houses. The story of what happened to this family and the other settlers is worth retelling. Col. Floyd received some information that there were Indians lurking nearby. He immediately ordered the militia to scour the countryside. Some of the members of the militia came from Ft. Kincheloe, which was in Nelson Co. (now Spencer Co.), KY. When they were unable to find any Indians, the group dispersed and returned home. During the time the men were away, there had been no alarm at Kincheloe Station, as it also was known. The men returned home late and were very tired and since, there appeared to be no imminent danger, they retired. In the middle of the night, when all were sleeping, the Indians simultaneously attacked the cabins. The men awakened, only to be slain, by the attackers. The darkness allowed only a few of them to escape death or capture. Mrs. Davis and another woman escaped to the woods, where they were soon joined by a young man, named Ashe, who led them to Cox's Station. Several women were cruelly killed as they traveled to the Indians settlements. Many of the captured women and children were taken to Detroit, where they were held for some time. Many prisoners were held until peace was declared the following year. At this time they were released and returned to their homes. One of these was Isaac,^{5} son of Cornelius and Eleanor. Davis and Kincheloe family traditions indicate that both Cornelius and Eleanor were murdered during the massacre. It is also tradition that Isaac remembered seeing his father come into the house, bloodied, after which he returned to the battle and was killed. Isaac^5 was captured and taken to Detroit where he was to be ransomed or sold. He was released or ransomed ca. 1783. He recalled being adopted by an Indian woman, who was most kind to him. She even decorated him with rings in his nose, which he brought back with him. Later, he is said to have worn these rings in this ears and in his nose, as well as other ornaments. Isaac grew up in Nelson Co., KY.

1. Isaac^{5}, b. 21 Jul 1775, Prince William Co., VA; m. 10 Jan 1799, Clarissa Kincheloe. Clarissa b. ca. 1774, Fauquier Co., VA; d. 1833, was the dau. of William and Mary 'Mollie' (White) Kincheloe. Their dau. (Davis):

2. Warren^{5}, b. Jan 1782?, (Nelson Co.) KY; d. 1 Sep 1782(?), k. by Indians, Ft. Kincheloe (Nelson), KY. No further information on this child. Possibly k. during the Indian attack at Ft. Kincheloe or he may have been taken and raised by the Indians or other settlers.

6. Jane^{4}, b. Prince William Co., VA; m. bef. 2 Dec 1782, Hugh Davis. Hugh b. ca. 1757, Prince William Co., VA.; d. aft. 1840. One account states that Hugh is the son of William^2, the son of David^1. It would seem more likely that he is the son of William, Jr.^{3}. We know of only two sons of William^2, William, Jr. and Isaac^3; William^2 d. bef. 28 Apr 1756, thus making it unlikely, but not impossible, that Hugh was his son. Hugh could have been an infant, when his father died. Hugh served in the American Revolution, attached to Gen. Henry 'Light Horse Harry' Lee's command.[467]

7. Isaac, Jr.^{4}, an Isaac Davis served in the 6th and 11th VA Regts. in the Continental Line during the War of Independence; he received a grant from KY, dated 17 Apr 1786 for 188 acres on F.K. Stewart Creek, in Nelson Co., KY. Isaac signed as surety for his brother, Warren, for marriage to Mary 'Mollie' Kincheloe, who was their cousin and dau. of William and Mary (White)

Kincheloe. Isaac served as foreman of the first Grand Jury in Court of Quarter Sessions of Muhlenberg Co., which opened 15 Jun 1799.[468] (p. 218 for children).

9. Travis^{4}, m. bef. 10 Oct 1788, Margaret 'Peggy' Kincheloe, his 1st cousin. Travis signed as witness of the will of his father-in-law and uncle, William Kincheloe, on 10 Oct 1788, in Nelson Co., KY. The couple joined in deed to land in Shelby Co., KY. Mary was referred to by her father in his will as 'Peggy' Davis.'[470]

10. Warren^{4}, m. 10 Jan 1787, Mary 'Mollie' Kincheloe, Nelson Co., KY. Mollie dau. of William and Mary 'Mollie' (White) Kincheloe. Warren signed as witness to the will of Lewis Reno on 28 Aug 1799. Mary is referred to as 'Mollie' Davis in her father's will signed 10 Oct 1788. Warren and his brother, Travis m. sisters. Isaac, Warren's brother was surety on the marriage bond of Warren and Mollie.[471]

11. Henry^{4}, b. ca. 1766-8, Prince William Co., VA; m. bef. 13 Oct 1791, Fanny Randall, Prince William Co., VA; d. ca. Apr/May 1805, MCK; will dated Apr 1805; bur. family graveyard on his farm, Muhlenberg Co. Fanny b. 28 Mar 1768, VA; d. 15 Jul 1852, Greenville, Muhlenberg, KY; bur. Nelson Creek Church Cem., Muhlenberg, KY. She m. (2) 11 Dec 1812, John Hughes, MCK. On 10 Jul 1799, Family tradition states that the land upon which the Nelson Creek Baptist Church and Cemetery now sit were part of Henry's farm. It may be that Henry was bur. in what is now the church cemetery. In any case, his marker has not been found, if there ever was one. After his death, Fanny, his wife, seemed little concerned about her children. Possibly, there was some antipathy toward Henry, as well. Henry was not listed as one of Isaac's^4 children. McPherson[472] concludes that Henry was inadvertently omitted and states that Henry was the youngest child of Isaac and Elizabeth (Kincheloe) Davis. Land that was deeded to the other children of Isaac, was in possession of Henry, for he and his wife, Fanny, sold this property 13 Oct 1797.[473]

Henry paid taxes on two 200 acre tracts of land located on the Cypress Creek. Later, on 24 Sep 1802, William Nixon and his wife, Elizabeth, sold to Henry 200 acres for 200 pounds, corner to John Culbertson. All were from Muhlenberg

Co. The action was witnessed by Isaac and Jesse Davis and Thomas Irvin.[474] Henry^4 moved first to Hartford, Meade Co., KY from VA., later living in the Brandenberg area where his children were born. He later moved to Muhlenberg Co.[475] Henry's will, recorded Apr 1805, gave to Randall, his son, the plantation purchased from the Nixon's. To his son, Henry, Jr., he gave the plantation on which the family was residing at the time Henry, Sr. wrote his will. He also deeded to Henry, Jr. 60 acres of land adjoining his property, which he purchased from Corner (sp?), and which he directed be ". . .deeded out of my property to him and his heirs forever."[476] Henry, Sr.^{4} willed his land on the Cypress to his daughters which was to be deeded out of his property. He also provided for the education of his children from the income of his estate, requesting that Henry be provided a liberal education. A deed (mentioned above), dated 13 Oct 1791, was signed by Henry and his wife, Fannie of Nelson Co., KY, indicating that they had come to KY at a very early date.[477] Henry and his brother, Warren, were members of the first grand jury (23 Jan 1799) impaneled in Muhlenberg Co., KY. He also joined his brother, Warren, in witnessing the will of Lewis Reno, dated 28 Aug 1799. Henry also served on the first petit jury in Muhlenberg Co., KY, impaneled March term, 1803.

On 08 Feb 1812, Francis 'Fanny' Davis purchased a 1/3 ac. lot in Greenville, KY for $3 from David H. Stephens.[478] Later, on 08 Feb 1813, John Hughs of Nelson Co., KY, who had recently married Fanny, sold the following Negroes " . .for $1 and his love and affection to Sally, Nancy, Fanny, Hanney (sic) and Polly Davis, children of my wife Fanny, formerly Fanny Davis . . . Beck, Reuben, Phil, Anthony and Rachel."[479] On 09 Jan 1815, Randall Davis was named guardian of Nancy, Fanny and Hannah Davis, while Peter Jones was named guardian Polly and Henry Davis.[480] One can only guess about the relationship between Fanny and her children. It would appear that Henry, Sr. felt he must ensure that his children received their share of his fortune. Later, on 9 Jan 1815, after a number of court summons and orders to Fannie and John Hughs, Nancy, Fanny and Hannah Davis came into Court and chose their brother, Randall Davis as their guardian; Peter Jones, Joseph Heck, Lewis Reno and John Elliot his Securities, entered into and acknowledged their bond in the penalty of

We do not know at this time, what happened to John Hughs and why Fannie began using the name Davis again. But she is bur. at the Nelson Creek Baptist Church in Muhlenberg Co. and her tombstone lists her as Fanny Davis, wife of Henry. Possibly, Nancy told the census taker that her name was Davis and later had the tombstone engraved with the Davis name. On the other hand, Fanny may have changed her name back to Davis. Names of children 4, 5 and 6 are not known.

16314 1. Isaac⁵, b. 9 Oct 1782, Prince William Co., VA; 6 Jun 1858; .m. Mary Wickliffe, sis. of Moses Wickliffe, KY pioneer. Mary b. 22 Apr 1785, VA; d. 4 Sep 1870; both bur. Davis or Ham Cem., Muhlenberg Co., KY. Isaac⁵ came to the Simpson Creek and Chaplin Fork section of Nelson Co., KY, from Prince William Co. as a boy. He served in the War of 1812 enlisting in Nov 1814 and was honorably discharged 20 May 1815. He served as an Ensign in Alney McLean's Company, along with other men from Muhlenberg Co., fighting in the Battle of New Orleans, 8 Jan 1815.The soldiers suffered great hardships during this war. To Isaac, one of the worst of these was the lack of fresh milk and butter, for he vowed that he would build a comfortable home in Muhlenberg Co. and dig a large cellar and keep it plentifully supplied with milk and butter. He kept his word, building a 2-story frame dwelling in the northeastern portion of the county, near the Green River, just east of Martwick. His farm was long regarded as one of the best managed farms in the county. He owned many slaves and produced much corn, wheat and livestock. He did not grow tobacco, which is so injurious to the soil. His granaries were always filled, and during lean years he sold goods to his neighbors, below market prices. In his earlier days he often taught, without pay, the children of the community. For he thought it good for the community, even though 'he had more than enough to do at home.' In 1850, Isaac and his family are recorded in the 2nd District of Muhlenberg Co. He is listed as a farmer, age 67, b. VA., real estate value of $5,100; Mary b. VA; age 65; Aaron Wickliffe Davis, age 40, real estate value $800. Children p. 219.

2. Henry⁵

3. (dau.)⁵, grandmother of Logan Murray and John J. Crittenden, prominent early Kentuckians.

6. Jesse⁵, b. 2 Dec 1792, Nelson Co., KY; m. 20 Dec 1815, Nancy Mayson, Elizabethtown, Hardin, KY; d. 4 Mar 1860, Arthur, Pike Co., IN. Nancy b. ca. 1797; d. ca. 1894-6. On 15 Nov 1878, Nancy gave her age as 81 yr., when applying for a widow's pension, due to her because of her husband's military service. Jesse was a twin of William Huston below. On Apr 24 1855, Jesse signed a declaration that he was 63 yr. old and had been drafted at Bardstown, KY in Oct 1814 and had served, under Col. Slaughter and Capt. John Farmer, as a private in the 15th KY militia Regiment for 82 days. He was honorably discharged 10 May 1815 at Bardstown, KY. After his regiment was discharged in Apr 1815 at Nashville, TN, Jesse remained behind to recuperate for illness. His enlistment papers indicate that he was a farmer, with black hair, dark complexion, hazel eyes, and 6 ft. tall. Jesse and Nancy lived in Bardstown (1815-9), Gibson Co., IN (ca. 1819-39) and Pike Co., IN (ca. 1839 until death).

7. William Huston⁵, b. 2 Dec 1792, Nelson Co., KY; d. 2 Oct 1872, Hanson, Hopkins, KY; m. (1) Elizabeth Gibbs. Elizabeth b 4 Feb 1809; d. 21 Oct 1840, Montgomery Co., TN; (2) 11 Jul 1842, Ann Nancy Simmons (widow of Joseph Averett), Montgomery Co., TN. Ann d. aft 1876. Wm., a twin of Jesse above, enlisted on 31 Aug 1813 to serve in the War of 1812, serving as a private in the 11th KY Volunteers Mounted Militia. He was stationed at New Orleans and served under Capt. Charles F. Wing; he was honorably discharged at Limestone, KY on 5 Nov 1815. Wm. was a shoemaker and resided in Butler Co., KY (1850) and moved to Todd Co., KY ca. 1853/4, after which he moved to Kincheloe's Bluff, Muhlenberg Co., KY. Children of Wm. and Elizabeth (Davis):

1. Samuel B.⁶, b. 11 Dec 1830.
2. Lydia M.⁶, b. 11 Jan 1833.

The children of Henry^{4} and Fanny (Randall) Davis

(Davis)[486]

1. Randall^{5}, b. ca. 1792/5. In 1820, Randall was appointed, by the MCK Court, guardian of his youngest brother, Henry, Jr. Randall appears in only the 1820 MCK census, in which is listed one older male, 16-25 yr. (b. 1795-1804) and a male age 10-16 yr. (b. 1804-1810). One suspects that the former is Randall, while the latter is likely Henry. Also living in the household was one female, age 26-45 (b. 1775-1794). If the age is correct, it could not have been his mother, Fanny, since she was b. 1768. It seems likely that it was Nancy, who m. later that year. It is not known what happened to Randall. On 28 Jun 1819, he sold his 200 acres to James Sharp for $425. He may have left MCK, after the 1820 census.[487]
2. Nancy^{5}, b. 9 May 1796, KY; d 1873; bur. Nelson Creek Cem., MCK;[488] m. 4 Dec 1820, John Henry McConnell, MCK. John d. ca. 30 Sep 1833. Nancy purchased 200 acres, including the mansion, from James McConnell.[489] Nancy was a charter member of the First Baptist Church, Greenville, KY, ca. 1869. See McConnell Family, p. 224. Evidently, Nancy's mother, Fanny (Randall) Davis Hughes was living with her in the latter stages of her life, for the 1840 census lists one female, age 70-80 (1760-70) living in her household; the 1850 census lists Fanny Davis as living there. See p. 227 for a list of the children of John Henry and Nancy (Davis) McConnell.
3. Sarah 'Sallie'^{5}, b. ca. 1796; d. prob. bef. 1825; m. 1812, Joseph Heck. McPherson says that Sallie m. 23 Jul 1812, David Carden (Corder?), MCK. While a Sallie m. David Corder, it seems that this Sallie m. Joseph Heck. In the settlement of Henry, Sr.'s estate, Joseph Heck is listed as one of the heirs of the estate. Joseph m. (2) Catherine (Davis) Rogers, widow of Evan Rogers. Catherine may have been the daughter of Henry and Mary (Wickliffe or Kincheloe) Davis, who also lived in Nelson and Muhlenberg Counties at that time. Children (Heck):
    1. Randall Davis^{6}, b. 22 Apr 1815.
    2. Frances Adeline^{6}, b. 10 Jul 1819.
4. Frances 'Fanny'^{5}, b. 6 May 1797, Brandenburg, Meade Co., KY; d. 12 Apr 1848; bur. Sunnydale Cem., Beaver Dam, Ohio, KY; m. 23 Oct 1817, James McConnell. James b. 11 Nov 1791; 8 Dec 1858; bur. Sunnydale Cem. James and Fanny were originally bur. on their farm in Echols, KY, but the graves were moved because of strip mining. For children see p. 229.
5. Hannah^{5}, b. 4 Nov 1800; m. 1823, John Hardin McHenry, MCK. John b. 13 Oct 1797, Washington Co., KY; d. 1 Nov 1871, Owensboro, KY. John, b. 13 Oct 1797, near Springfield, Washington Co., KY; d. 1 Nov 1871, Owensboro, KY; bur. Elmwood Cem., Owensboro, KY. He was a Whig and served as Commonwealth's attorney, Judge KY state representative (1840) representing OCK, and U. S. Congressman (1845-7). John was privately tutored, and studied law, after which he was admitted to the bar (1819). In 1819, he was appointed Postmaster of Litchfield, KY. He served his country as a Major in the 87th Regiment, KY militia. John, was the grandson of John Hardin, the well known soldier and Indian fighter. John Hardin served in the American Revolution as a 2nd Lieutenant in Daniel Morgan's rifle corps. He also served in most of the Indian campaigns, serving under Gen. George Rogers Clark. He was commissioned Colonel in 1789. In 1792, he was tomahawked by the Miami Indians, while carrying a flag of truce. Shortly thereafter, he was commissioned a Brigadier General and the place he was killed was named Hardin, OH., in his honor.
6. Mary 'Polly'^{5}, b. 11 Nov 1802, Brandenburg, Meade Co., KY; d. 3 Jan or Jun 1862; m. 11 Nov 1828, Harrison D. Taylor, OCK; both bur. Milton Taylor Cem., located 3 mi. NE of Hartford, Ohio, KY. Harrison, who d. Mar-May, 1889, m. (2) bef. 9 Jun 1874, Kitty (____) Tribble.[490] Harrison Taylor was the author of "Ohio County in the Olden Days." tions, which were published by his granddaughter, Mary Taylor Logan in 1926. Harrison was the son of Rev. Thomas and Margaret (Curlet) Taylor. Thomas b. 1764; d. 1836, OCK; m. 24 Nov 1793, Margaret Curlet, dau. of Nicholas of Winchester, VA. Margaret b. 1772; d. 1855; both bur. Milton Taylor Cem. The couple came to OCK in 1802. Thomas was the son of 'Old Harrison" Taylor, the son of John and Hannah (Harrison) Taylor, who m. 1726. John was the son of Simon Taylor, who was the son of Richard, who came from Kent Co., England ca. 1608.[491]

7. Henry, Jr.^{5}, b. ca. 1803/4? Henry attended school for 8 yr. as shown by board paid for him at school pursuant to bequest for a 'liberal' education for him in the will of his father, Henry, Sr. On 15 May 1827, a Henry G. Davis, of Spencer Co., KY, sold to Bennett D. Bailey of MCK 200 acres on Nelson Creek, a branch of the Green River. Henry says that the land was willed to him by his father, Henry.[492] Henry G. may not have been the son of Henry, Sr., since there was a Daniel and Molly Brown, who sold to a Henry Davis 200 acres on the Green River on 23 Sep 1805. Henry, Sr. died ca. Apr 1805. Thus, it is unlikely that Henry G. was the same as Henry, Jr.

The McConnel(l) Family

At this time, it is difficult to tell the McConnell story accurately, or in great detail. We are told that many McConnells were descendants of the Lowland Scots who, during the seventeenth century, were banned from land ownership by the English Kings. Soon after, they began to migrate to the northeastern counties of Ireland and were misnamed Scotch-Irish; the appropriate name for this group is Ulster Scots. In the early eighteenth century, many of the Ulster Scots migrated to America, often landing in New Castle, DE, just south of Philadelphia.[493] The ancestors of the McConnells discussed here may well have been a part of this migration. There were many McConnells in early KY, illustrated by the following request for information on the parentage of four McConnell brothers: William, Alexander, Francis and James. These brother, along with other hunters, camped near present day, Lexington, KY, in the Spring of 1775; this group provided Lexington its name. William d. 1805, Fayette Co., KY; Francis d. 1781, at the Battle of Guilford Courthouse; James was killed 1782, during the siege of Bryant's Station; and Alexander d. 1782, at the Battle of Blue Licks.[494] In 1790 Kentucky Tax List contains the following the McConnells:

Bourbon Co. - Daniel, Archibald, Samuel
Fayette Co. - Adam, Adam, Andrew, James, Mary, Willim, William, William M.
Woodford Co. - Adam, James, James, Jr.

On the 1800 Tax List are found the following McConnells:

Barren Co. - Adam
Bourbon - Archibald, Edward, Martha, Samuel, William
Bracken Co. - Thomas
Fayette Co. - Alexander
Jefferson Co. - James, Robert
Jessamine Co. - James, William
Logan Co. - Thomas
Mercer Co. - John
Scott Co. - Francis, James
Shelby Co. - John
Woodford Co. - Adam, James

The following wills were dated and recorded in early KY and are provided to shed some light on the early McConnells:[495]

MORGAN, David. August 8, 1792. May 6, 1794. Wife: Elizabeth. Wit: James Palton, Samuel Kirby, Evan Williams.

MORGAN, Elizabeth. Dec. 22, 1801. Jan. 7, 1802. Legatees: Morgan Morgan and David Morgan (nephews of late husband), Elizabeth Emmons, Peggy Tyson (sisters-in-law), Mary Stinson and Sidney Dougherty (sisters), Ben Tyson, James Prather, Worden Pope, children of bro. James McConnell (James, William, Francis, Mary, Betsey, Peggy), children of bro. William McConnell (James, Robert, William, Patsy, Mary Rankin McConnell), children of sister Sidney Dougherty (John, James, Peggy), Thomas Stinson (son of sister Mary Stinson). Wit: John Collin.

Thus, there were the following McConnell siblings: William, James, Elizabeth. Sidney, and Mary. These were likely the aunts and uncles of James McConnell. b. 11 Nov 1791, KY. It also seems likely that James was the son of William or

Plaintiff,
vs. NO. D 89083.
Betty Louise Flor, 59216
Defendant.

ENTERED

DIVORCE DECREE.

This cause coming on to be heard before me the undersigned Judge of the District Court in and for Oklahoma County, Oklahoma, on this 14th day of May, 1956, a regular court day of the January term of said court, upon the petition of the plaintiff herein, and the defendant having filed herein a sufficient waiver of service of summons and entry of appearance, and the court having ordered that the allegations contained in said petition be taken as confessed, and having heard the oral testimony of witnesses sworn and examined in open court and being fully advised in the premises and on consideration thereof finds that all material facts alleged in plaintiff's are true; that plaintiff at time of filing petition was and had been an actual resident in good faith of this State for more than one year next preceding the filing of said petition and was at the time of filing the petition a resident of this county, and that the parties in this action had been married, as in the petition set forth.

The court further finds that plaintiff and defendant are incompatible and plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed for.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court that plaintiff is granted a decree of divorce from said defendant, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between said parties be and the same are hereby dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and both parties are released therefrom.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the care, custody and education of the children of the parties hereto be confided to the defendant and that plaintiff pay the sum of $20.00 per week child support.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defendant be awarded the 4 room house located at 3132 S.W. 19th Street, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, being Lots 37 and 38, Block [illegible] Boulevard Addition to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, subject to a mortgage in the approximate sum of $4,200.00 which defendant assumes and agrees to pay, and that she be awarded the four rooms of household furniture. That plaintiff be awarded the 1951 Nash automobile. The furniture and automobile is subject to a mortgage in favor of Central State Bank in the present amount of $670.00 which plaintiff assumes and agrees to pay.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that this decree of divorce shall not become absolute and take effect until the expiration of six months from this date.

Morgan,

I have returned from a little vacation, and I discovered some ILER tombstones listed below that might interest you while traveling the Eastern shore area of Maryland. Bruce

I'm not sure how common the Iler surname is that area, but these tombstones are side-by-side at the town cemetery in FEDERALSBURG,Md.;

Morgan,

Good morning. I imagine you are very busy. Maybe you can look up an Eiler when you have the moment to do so, to see what family line this fellow connects with or if he's "in limbo" in our files! thanks, Bruce Denton in Caroline county. I already requested concerning more information about Leslie & Stella Iler. If anything else surfaces about them, I'll include it in mailing with their tombstones photos.

Referencing the SSDI, Stella Iler was listed birth 3 Oct. 1882 and death in New York, June 1971. That is a close match to the tombstones date 1883-1971

86 YEAR OLD WM. EILER ANSWERED DEATH SUMMONS

Confined to his bed with illness for the past eleven months, death Sunday evening was a welcome visitor to William Eiler, an aged resident of this town. Mr. Eiler was 86 years of age. He was born in North Manheim Township on October 28th, 1830. For the past 67 years he was a resident of Schuylkill Haven. He was a quiet citizen and for many years after his health failed assisted his wife in the braiding of shirts for various factories. For years he resided in the small home in the South Ward known as the Wingender property. He was formerly in the employ of the P. & R. Railroad company. Besides the widow, two sons, William of Philadelphia, and Charles of Reading, two sisters, Mrs. Oliver Emerich and Mrs. John Prehafer survive.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. C. A. Mutch at the home of the son-in-law of the deceased, Mr. Oliver Emerich of Berne street. The bearers were grandsons of the deceased. O. A. Bittle was funeral director. Interment was made on the Jerusalem cemetery.

PUBLISHERS OF MENACE PLACED ON TRIAL

Four publishers of the Anti-Catholic paper The Menace were placed on trial in the Federal court at Joplin Mo., Tuesday of this week charged with mailing obscene matter and the distribution of a book alleged to contain obscene matter.

This letter was written by Confederate soldier Gidaleous "Gideon " Oyler from Ash Flat. Oyler wrote this to his parents in Ash Flat while he was in the midst of certain terror and uncertain future while fighting in attle at Iruka, Mississippi. Two items are noteworthy in this letter: 1) Oyler's fear of not being able to return and 2)Oyler's fine penmanship for a person writing a letter during the middle of war. This letter was saved e Oyler family and is compliments of Oyler's granddaughter, Martha (Oyler) Joseph Lawrence of Ash Flat. The has been kept in good condition and found in the Oyler family Bible. The letter is transcribed as stating the wing:

Bowers Family Tree

Produced for
James Charles Bowers

Welcome to the 2003 Bowers Family Reunion!

This booklet is only in it's "First Edition". There are many corrections, changes and additions to be made. Please review the information and let me know any changes. This was created using a software called "Family Tree Maker". The data and pictures that I have already entered can be shared. There is so much information that I don't have. For example, my sister is Bernice Torregrossa. I know her husbands' name and his parents' names, but that's it. No birthdates, death dates or his brothers and sisters. If her daughters would like to enter the entire Torregrossa heritage into the program, it would fit and then the Torregrossa children could run Ancestor charts that would have both sides of their family. The same applies to just about everyone that married into the Bowers Family. If you would like me to input the information, I would be happy to enter it for you.

If you look at the 6 page document called "Descendants of Johnston Robertson Bowers", under most peoples names there are "notes". I copied these from the old family information sheets that my mother had. They are very short and do not include a whole lot of information. Two or three sentences on a person just doesn't do most of our relatives justice. I would very much like for each of you to write just a little bit about yourself: school, where did you meet your spouse, medals, honors, etc.
What do you want your great-great grandchildren to know about you?

I have begun to enter pictures into the program, however I do not have them all entered at this time. The pictures take up a lot of room on the computer. I may just make copies of pictures and insert them into the books.

Please don't be offended if I misspelled your name or got your birthday wrong! I have used several sources for the information and have found some inconsistencies in the data. I have tried to be as accurate as possible, however I know there are mistakes. Please let me know the errors, no matter how small. If you send me the information within the next few months, I can produce the "Second Edition" by Christmas!

Thanks for your help.

(1) 1880...The 1880 United States census for Staunton, Augusta, VA shows George Eyler, age 40, living with his second wife, Amanda, age 30. Also in the household is Ida, age 18, who is probably George's daughter from a first marriage as well as George W., age 12, John, age 10, Charles, age 6, Henry, age 5, and Mary, age 3. Based on Amanda's age, and the spacing of the children's birth dates, It is possible that George and John are also children of the first marriage. Further research will be required.

(Source: 1880 U. S. Census, NA#T9-R1354, ED#9, Sheet 24, Line 32, National Archives, East Point, GA)

(2) Based on the birth dates and birth places of the children, it appears that from about 1862 to 1868, George moved from Pennsylvania to Maryland and about 1870 to 1874, from Maryland to Virginia.

DAISY BALCH
SAMUEL S. WHITAKER
DEDICATED IN LOVING MEMORY
MY GREAT GRANDPARENTS

Grandma Daisy was born abt 1875/76 Cocke County, Tennessee died abt 1898 probably in Celina, Collin Co. Texas. I am currently trying to locate the cemetery in Texas where she may be buried.

She married 13 August 1890 Cocke County, Tennessee SAMUEL S. WHITAKER born 31 December 1868 Cocke County, Tennessee died 8 April 1948 Amarillo, Potter County, Texas buried Ilano Cemetery, Potter County, Texas, son of JOSEPH WHITAKER AND MARY ELIZA HUDSON.

Sometime after the birth of their first child, 2 Nov 1892, they left Cocke Co Tenn and moved to Celina, Collin Co. Texas probably with her father and siblings. My grandpa, Ugene, was born in Texas Oct 1896 probably in Collin Co.

In her son, Bruce Guerdel Whitaker's, obituary it states he was 6 years old when his mother died, which would have been abt 1898.

After the death of Daisy, Samuel took the boys and moved back to Parrottsville, Tenn and lived with his sister Margaret for a while to help him care for his two young sons. He is listed on the 1900 census in her household.

Samuel then married his neighbor, Mary Etta Willett 18 June 1900, Cocke County, Tennessee., which followed with a child 7 months later. Grandpa's first born daughter of this marriage was the namesake of grandma Daisy. It must have been a terrible loss to him at such a young age and honored her name and memory with this child.

With five young children & a new wife, he once again left Tennessee between 1903/1906 and ventured to Mansfield, Wright County, Missouri where they lived for several years. It is believed they may have moved to Springfield, Greene Co. Missouri for a short time, leaving his eldest son, Bruce G. Whitaker there. Bruce was about 18 years old at that time.

About 1910 he moved his family to Gas City, Allen County, Kansas and a short time later to Iola, Allen County, Kansas, which is only a few miles away. There he lost his 2nd born my grandfather, Ugene, to the dreaded flu epidemic in 1919 & divorced Mary in 1928. He remained in Iola, Kansas for many years, before moving back to Texas in the 1930's. He never remarried and resided in Amarillo, Texas until his death in 1948.

Although grandpa had endured much heartache in his life, he still remained a cheerful and spunky spirit. He is remembered with much fondness by his children & grandchildren of his 2nd family.

BRUCE GUERDEL WHITAKER

Born 2 November 1892 Cocke Co. TN Died 5 Oct 1941 Weleetka, Okfuskee Co. Oklahoma Buried Hillcrest Cemetery, Weleetka, Oklahoma

He married 1920 in Concordia, KS IDA SOPHIA NICHOLS NO CHILDREN

Bruce Guerdel Whitaker

It was first thought his name was Donald Bruce, but have since determined it to be Bruce Guerdel, name sake of his grandfather, Henry Girdine Balch. I'm not sure if this is the correct spelling, but the records record it that way. There is little doubt his mother named him after her father.

Ida Sophia Nichols

Tombstone of Bruce Whitaker

OBITUARY

Bruce G. Whitaker was born in Raleigh, North Carolina on November 2, 1892. He departed from this life in Weleetka, Okla. on October 5, 1941, at the age of 48 years, 11 months, and three days. (Note: I believe this birthplace to be in error, I believe he was born in Cocke Co. Tennessee)

At the age of six years, his mother passed away. In 1898 he and his father moved to Springfield, Mo., where he grew to manhood. (Note: This scenario I also believe is partly in error, due to them residing in 1900 Cocke Co. Tenn with his Aunt Margaret)

He was a World War veteran. He was in Company G, 137th Infantry, 35th Division and served one year in France. After receiving an honorable discharge he went to Kansas. In 1920, he was married in Concordia, Kansas to Ida Sophia Nichols. He became an employee of the Kansas Power in Concordia and was employed there for seven years before moving to Weleetka, Okla., where he was employed by the Public Service Company.

He became a member of the Christian church at an early age. He was a member of the Modern Woodman of America in Concordia, Kansas. He was Post Commander of Weleetka V. F. W. Post No. 3556.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Christian church Wednesday, October 8 at 4 P.M. by Rev. Robert Nelson, assisted by Rev. Alexander Best.

Members of the Henryetta Post No. 539 of the V. F. W. had charge of the services at the grave.

Mr. Whitaker is survived by his wife, Ida Whitaker of the home, his father and step mother, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Whitaker, Amarillo, Texas, three brothers, Estel, Al, and Kenneth, all of Amarillo; two sisters, Mrs. Daisy Zeh, Kansas City, MO and Mrs. Kathryn Feeler, Dewey, Oklahoma.

Many others grieve at his departure, recognizing in his going the loss of a good citizen, brother, and friend.

Pallbearers were Earl Payne, Albert Gardner, Merle LaRue, Clifton Reauber, B. E. Sams, Homer White, Orvil Jones, and Jack Dillon.
Interment was made in the Hillcrest Cemetery, Douglass Funeral Home in charge.
DEATH CERTIFICATE 54-16774 STATE OF OKLAHOMA
Cause of death: Drowning accident at an industrial site while he was working. Employed by Public Service Company of Oklahoma, occupation: Boiler Repairman

UGENE E. WHITAKER *My Grandfather

Quite a handsome fellow I'm proud to say!!

My grandmother

Flossie Bernice Gardner Marple Whitaker Parks

My grandpa, Ugene was born October 1896 Collin Co. Texas d. 31 March 1919 Iola, Allen County, Kansas Buried 1 April 1919 Iola Cemetery, Iola, Allen County, Kansas in an unmarked grave. I currently have plans to erect a tombstone for him.

Grandpa 's mother ,Daisy, died when he was about 2 years old. He had traveled numerous places while growing up, arriving in Kansas at age 13 and grew to manhood there. He was working in the smelting plants in Iola when he died. Gas and oil was a booming business in Kansas at the time they arrived there, and probably one of the reasons they went there was for work.

He married my grandmother, 8 January 1917 Fort Smith, Sebastian County, Arkansas FLOSSIE BERNICE GARDNER MARPLE born 7 January 1897 Iola, Allen County, Kansas died 9 October 1976 Kansas City, Johnson County, Kansas buried Ft. Leavenworth National Cemetery, Leavenworth, Kansas with her 3rd husband, Frank Parks , daughter of CHARLES WILLIAM GARDNER AND LUELLA POWELL.

After receiving a copy of their marriage certificate I wondered why on earth they had gone to Arkansas to marry. Then I realized grandmother had been married previously, and had a baby by her first marriage buried in the cemetery in Iola. I later found her divorce from Mr. Marple in December, 1916. She was not allowed under the law to marry in the state of Kansas for 6 months after the divorce. I believe she and grandfather had been courting prior to her divorce from Mr. Marple, as the divorce was a bit scandulous. Other family members who knew her and are still living, did not know she had been married previously before her marriage to grandpa.

Grandpa was old enough to have served in World War I. I am currently checking those records.

Grandpa died of pneumonia and had been ill for about a week before he died with the dreaded flu epidemic that had spread throughout the world. Grandpa's life was cut short, as his mother and grandmother before him had been. It seemed to follow a path in our family. It truely saddens my heart not to have known him, as I have been told what a gentle and kind soul he truely had been. He took his younger 1/2 brothers and sisters under his wing in their tender years. A real loss to them when he died.

When grandpa died, grandma was pregnant with my father. When he was 3 months old, she put him up for adoption. She remarried again in 1920 and moved to Kansas City, where she lived the rest of her life.

Uncle Don Whitaker Parks

Uncle Don was born 26 October 1917 Iola, Allen County, Kansas died 31 July 1991 Lees Summit, Jackson County, Missouri. His body was donated to the Kansas University Medical Center. He was the namesake of his Uncle Bruce Guerdel Whitaker. He died only a few weeks before I found our family.

Uncle Don married VADA BELL RICE 21 June 1940 Kansas City, Johnson County, Kansas. They had no children. He worked for the Union Pacific Railroad. He was adopted by his step father, Frank Parks after he reached maturity.

WHITAKER FAMILY

of Washington, Greene & Cocke Co. TN
LAST UPDATE: 18 Sept 2001

Thomas Hargis Whitaker and his wife, Jemima Edgemon. A BIG THANKS to our cousin Helen Whitaker Johnson, who discovered this wonderful photo and is the owner. On the back of the photo it is written "Hargis Whitaker and Jemima Edgemon".

Our family history information begins with THOMAS HARGIS WHITAKER who was born 16 Jan 1788 Virginia and died 16 Jan 1869 Greene Co. Tenn. His parents are suspected to be Richard Whitaker and Rachel Bentley of Washington Co. Virginia, once again thanks to Helen Whitaker Johnson who has been studying this part of the Whitaker family.

He married 25 March 1813 Washington Co. Tennessee by her grandfather, Isaac White, J.P. at Isaac's home to JEMIMA EDGEMON, who was born 27 Sept 1790 Washington Co. Tennessee and died 30 Mar 1882. She was the daughter of _____(George?)Edgemon and MARY WHITE. Mary White was daughter of Isaac White and Sarah Vaughn of Washington Co. Tennessee. The birth and death dates are recorded in the family bible records of their son Richard Whitaker, in the possession of Helen Whitaker Johnson.

Thomas served in the War of 1812 as a Private under Captain Andrew Lawson's Company, Tennessee Militia from 20 Sept 1814 to 9 May 1815.

Nancy Whitaker b. abt 1825/1829 Greene co. Tn married Augustus Blakely 27 Dec 1852 Washington Co. Tn. She may be buried in Lauderdale Co. Tn where they were found residing on the 1880 census. Their daughter Ellen Blakely married Jacob A. Click, son of Isaac Click & Eliza Jane Hampton from Washington Co. Tn, who also is my 2nd cousin 3x removed and how I discovered them residing in the 1880 census in Lauderdale Co. Tenn.

Rachel Whitaker b. abt 1827 married 1st) John Page 21 Nov 1850 Greene co. Tn 2nd) David W. Carder (her 2nd cousin) 5 Oct 1851 Washington Co. Tn. It is believed that Rachel & David may have died in Goshen, Warren Co. Kentucky where they were residing in 1880. David was the son of Jonathan Carder and Sarah White (her first cousin).

Jesse R. Whitaker b. 1828 Greene Co. Tn d. 1909 Washington Co. Tn buried Pleasant Hill Cemetery married Sarah E. Ingle 23 Mar 1854 Washington Co. Tn

Richard Madison Whitaker and Elizabeth Jane Hulse, owner - Helen Whitaker Johnson, great granddaughter

Elizabeth Jane Whitaker b. abt 1832 Greene Co. Tn married Jesse R. Gibson 23 July 1849 Greene Co. Tn. Jesse & Elizabeth were lst cousins. She may have died in Goshen, Warren Co. Kentucky. I found a Jesse Gibson with another wife residing in the 1880 census there and she probably already deceased by that time. Jesse is the son of Francis Gibson and Jane B. Martin. Francis Gibson is the son of Thomas Gibson and Mary White (the grandmother of Elizabeth Jane Whitaker) Francis Gibson and Jemima Edgemon were 1/2 brother and sister.

Joseph Whitaker b. 1833 Greene Co. Tn My 2nd great grandfather SEE BELOW

Stephen Jasper Whitaker b. 15 June 1837 d. 23 June 1919 Knox Co. Tn buried Middlebrook Cemetery, Knox Co. Tn married Penelope Ann Staten 17 April 1859 Greene Co. Tennessee

John Whitaker b. abt 1846 - It is believed that this John is an out of wedlock child of Nancy Whitaker Blakely. Helen Whitaker Johnson finds him living in Sullivan Co. Tn on the 1860 census with Nancy. This warrants some fact that Thomas and Jemima would have been 58 & 56 respectively when John was born. The LDS records indicate him as a son but believe the information to be erroneous.

"I'M LIVING TODAY"

Picture, if you can, a balmy spring morning in that dim, gray light that comes just before the dawn.

Now follow me down a rocky, winding path thru the trees to a fishing boat tied alongside a small dock. The lake at this hour of the morning is so calm and motionless that it resembles a huge mirror. It would seem almost sacreligious to start the boat's motor and disturb this heavenly scene. Instead, let's step in quietly, and paddle ever so gently toward the middle of the cove.

Overhead we hear a powerful, but still gentle rush of wings. Looking up we make out the graceful, gliding form of a great owl returning from his night's work.

Back on the shore, it sounds as though a million song birds are all trying to tell their beautiful and melodic story at the same time. It seems strange indeed, that without either director or conductor they have perfected such a perfect symphony.

Further on down the beach a grandaddy bullfrog, in his deepest bass voice, is crooning a tender lovesong to some unseen lady frog. Squirrels, chipmunks, deer, and many other timid creatures slip cautiously down to the water's edge for their morning refreshment, then glide silently back into the shadows of the protecting forest.

We drift aimlessly for what seems like hours, so spellbound by Mother Nature's wonders that we have completely forgotten our fishing tackle lying idly in the boat.

At times like this I am reminded of an article by the great Dale Carnegie. He speaks about the tragedy that most humans tend to put off living until tomorrow. They are constantly dreaming of some magical rose garden, always just over the horizon--instead of enjoying the roses blooming right outside their window today.

Then I think, "How Sweet the Roses are---TODAY!!"

BY DONALD BRUCE WHITAKER PARKS MARCH, 1965  My father's only brother

These words were written by a man I never knew, however, he was my uncle, and my father's only brother ----he never knew.

My Uncle Don enjoyed his fishing trips to the Lake of the Ozarks in Missouri where he spent a great deal of his leisure time. I'm sure it was on one of those trips that he wrote this poem. I'm sure he wrote these words wondering where his brother was at, & little did he know he was only about 150 miles away. My father enjoyed fishing as much as his brother We spent many times fishing together when I was growing up.

Uncle Don grew up not knowing of my father, whom was 2 years younger. He never knew his last name was "WHITAKER" until he was an adult, and he never knew he had 2 nieces and 2 nephews. WE NEVER KNEW........

THE STORY OF MY FATHER'S ADOPTION BEGINS..........

My grandfather, Ugene E. Whitaker was born in Texas October, 1896. He was the son of Samuel S. Whitaker and Daisy Balch, who were married the 13th of August, 1890 in Cocke Co, Tennessee.

Daisy died about 1898 leaving Samuel a widower with two young sons to raise. He re-married in 1900 and a few years later left Tennessee with his family and went to Mansfield, Wright Co., Missouri between 1903/1906. They lived there between Nov1908 & Aug 1910 when they arrived in Gas City, Allen County, Kansas.

Ugene would have been about 14 years old when he arrived in Allen Co. Kansas. He grew to manhood there and married Flossie Bernice (Gardner) Marple the 8th of January, 1917 in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Flossie had been married previously and divorced from her first husband, Floyd Marple in December, 1916. According to her divorce, she was unable to marry in the State of Kansas for a period of time, subsequently she and grandfather leaving to marry in another state. They returned to Iola and resided there. On October 26, 1917 their first son, Donald Bruce Whitaker was born.

In the Spring of 1919, with the flu epidemic running rampant all over the United States, grandfather contracted the flu and subsequently died on March 31, 1919, leaving Flossie a widow with one 1-1/2 year old son and one on the way.

Flossie's early life was full of strife, with her father running all over the country and abusing alcohol. Her parents fought regularly when her father was around. Her mother was attempting to raise 4 children basically alone, and would take in laundry and boarders to survive. I'm sure she didn't have cherished childhood memories and it left an indelible impression on her of the struggles her mother encountered rearing 4 children alone. Now she was a widow at the age of 22, with a toddler and expecting a newborn, and no income to support them, and faced with raising her children alone.

We're not exactly certain what transpired during the pregnancy, but December 1, 1919, my father was put up for adoption. Flossie was about to marry Frank L. Parks in Kansas City, Missouri March 3, 1920.

The story told to us by living relatives in 1992 was that Frank Parks thought he would only be able to support one child, and Flossie made a choice she would have to live wih for the rest of her life. She buried her husband, left her baby, left Iola and started a new life with Frank Parks in Kansas City, Missouri.

She regretted the decision she made for the rest of her life. She threatened anyone in her family that knew what she had done within an inch of their life, if they ever told her oldest son Donald Bruce. Hence, Uncle Don never knowing he had a brother until he was a grown man. It became a very sensitive issue between Donald and his mother, he never understanding why she would put his only brother up for adoption.Flossie and Frank's marriage bore no children, resulting in Donald being raised as an only and lonely child.

THE SEARCH

My mother had shared with me in 1968, the story of the possibility of my father being adopted. I never really gave it much thought as I was only 19 years old and both of my father's parents were deceased.

I didn't give it anymore thought until about 1985, when I shared the information with one of my brothers. We decided to call our aunt who was 12 years older than my father, and see if she would tell us anything. We, to no avail, got any answers. So it laid for several more years until in January, 1991 I had started researching our family tree.

We had fruitlessly approached my aunt on another occasion and I'd kind of given up hope that we would find anything out about the adoption. Finally, in a conversation with my mother in February, 1991 she shared with me that when they were living with my grandparents, my mother had intercepted a telephone call from the courthouse in Bartlesville, Oklahoma regarding my father's birth certificate and what did she want to do about it. The woman thought she was talking to my adopted grandmother and the cat slipped out of the bag.

My mother had requested of my grandparents to ride along to Bartlesville to do some shopping, and was flatly denied. Mother had tried to discuss the matter with Grandma Ruby and was politely told "we do not discuss this matter any further"!!

THE BELLS AND WHISTLES FINALLY WENT OFF IN MY HEAD WHERE THE ADOPTION PAPERS WERE LOCATED!!!! I had been trying to establish where my grandparents were living when they might have gotten my father, which was only an educated guess. From all the brain picking I had been doing from other family members, I was finally able to ascertain they had received my father when he was quite young. So with trusty pen in hand, I proceeded to draft a letter to the court in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

Less than a week later, I came home and there was a plump envelope from the court with all of the papers nicely tucked inside. Daddy was 71 years old. I braced myself for what I was about to read. The tears began to fall as I read the names of my grandmother and my father.

When I read he was born in Iola, Kansas I almost fell off the couch. When I was 3 years old in 1951, we lived 7 miles from Iola, and Daddy delivered bread for Manor Baking Company in the entire Iola community and surrounding area. His mother and brother had spent many days in Iola during that time and we still had family living there as well. It amazes me how they never saw him and recognized him, due to the "twin" like resemblance between he and his brother.

NOW THE SEARCH WAS REALLY ON.........did he have brother's and sister's?

Once I determined his father was deceased, I surmized his mother probably remarried and could have had more children, and WHY would she put him up for adoption. I had also obtained Flossie maiden name of "GARDNER" and started calling all the Gardner's in Iola hoping to make a connection. Fruitlessly, I finally contacted the Iola newspaper in a desperate hope of finding ANY relative who might still be alive residing in the Iola area.

On September 18, 1991 the blessed phone call finally arrived. The Iola Register called me that they had made contact with Daddy's cousin. She was elated to know she had made contact with us. She had been told by her mother years before about the adoption, no one knowing where Daddy had gone.

They were all very sad Flossie had given Daddy up for adoption because family members were willing to help her keep him.

THEN THE SAD NEWS............

Betty proceeded to tell me that Daddy had one brother, but he had died only 6 weeks prior. Uncle Don was married, but had no children (only a step child by his wife's previous marriage). Flossie died never knowing she had 4 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren.

The saddest thing about this whole story is if the families hadn't been so "tight mouthed", we all could have shared the joy of being a family before Grandmother died. She only died in 1976 and Uncle Don in 1991. Such a loss of years.

I truely felt like I had been cheated from the bonds of my family all those years. When we went back to Kansas to meet our family in 1992, I was graciously given pictures and the above poem by my Aunt. When I read the poem Uncle Don wrote, I began to feel a bond with the family I never knew. How true and sweet his words really are thinking "HOW SWEET THE ROSES ARE.....TODAY!" I am truely grateful to finally learn the TRUTH about our heritage, as sad as it really may be.

I hope all that read this story and know anyone who has to make these kinds of choices, will truely stop to analyze what choices they are making and will have to live with for the rest of their life, not only for themselves, but with the lives of those they make the choices FOR, and take responsibility for those actions.

emoirs of Charles Eugene Oyler written after we found out he definitely had been adopted. These letters were written in an attempt to help give my ther some healing. I had not seen these letters until after the death of my father, when my mother sent them to me.

here is no date on this one, but must have been written about the same time as the others:

The Life of an Adopted Child"

tell this story of a child who has lived this life and I know firsthand of the heartaches and traumatic experiences that a person can encounter. I tell this ith the hope that it might save someone what I have gone through. I suggst if anyone has, or knows of, anyone, who has an adopted or an illegitmate hild or anything of this sort to please tell them at an accountable age. There have been good points and bad points come from this as there are from most anything.

.) Some of the bad points are questions during your life that come up that you cannot determine the answers for until you find out the truth as I finally d.

2) Also, you find that you have missed knowing the members of your immediate famly by some, only a short time.

3) It caused many bitter resentments against my foster parents and sister, and my real mother for the secretiveness of it all.

he good points are

1) I met my wife of 51 years and we had four wonderful children.

2) I came to know the Lord at an early age

3) Through times of deep frustration & bitterness I counseled with Bro Amos, Evie Cole, Rose Mary Motes and Betty Hawkins and others and was given ne assurance that I was loved b both them and the Lord. Bro Amos gave me some worthwhile advice about what to do and he said you know that we eed to turn our troubles over to the Lord, but he says I know we feel sometimes that seems hard to do. I was put on the prayer list and with the help of ne Lord and fellow Christians I am feeling much better about it. It is comforting to know that regardless what comes the Lord is always by our side, and hen there is only one set of footprints in the sand the Lord is carrying us. This has been an experience like I have never had in my entire lifetime and it as sure conviced me to trust in the Lord. Here is the life of my adoption

1) I was born Sept 11, 1919 as Clarence Ugene Whitaker. My father died at the age of 25 from pneumonia, 5 mo before I was born.

2) I was let out for adoption at the age of 3 mo and when I learned of all this I couldn't understand how a mother could give up a child she had after 3 no. I was adopted by Charles and Ruby Oyler after the trial period on Aug 3, 1920. I was raised on a dairy farm near Caney, Kansas and started helping ith the work at an early age. As I can remember I had a sort of lonely life as the foster sister was 12 years older than I. Four years after I was adopted a on was born to Oyler's, as I stated before a few years after this, questions started raising in my mind about things. We would get the bottled milk ready nd deliver it before we went to church and sunday school, which was nearly every Sunday. That is one of the good points of my life. As I went to school my early years I was late to school nearly every morning as we had to get the milk ready for delivery before we came to town. I went through school and graduated from Caney high school and on Mar 24, 1940 I was married to my wife Edith. We had four children and moved around different places and moved to Chanute, Kansas in 1951 which was only 8 miles from where I was born in Iola, Kansas. (but at this time I didn't know I was adopted). In 1967 my foster brother told me I was adopted but it was supposed to be a secret and I couldn't get any information about it. (NOTE: This was just after the death of Ruby Oyler, & actually occurred right after her funeral, nice timing of the family to tell Dad. They, of course, made no bones about the fact Dad was adopted, he never received so much as a picture from the family, but they were quick to present Dad's share of the funeral expenses for Ruby, which in their eyes was Dad's dues for them adopting him.).

In 1985 I finally got to looking into it and came to several ideas about who my father and mother were but my foster sister said they were not so, but her parents were both passed away and she would not give me any information. (So you can see why some of my bitterness).

In February 1991 our youngest daughter Carolyn started writing and searching around for legal statistics, and the children's home, and adoption papers and finally found out about who my parents were and that I had a brother and other uncles and aunts. The sad situation was my mother passed away in 1967 (actually 1976) and my brother July 31, 1991 just six weeks before I found all this out so with everything all piled into one it threw me into quite a traumatic situation. But as I stated earlier with the help of loving Christians and the Lord and my family I am beginning to get settled down and I praise the Lord dearly I have him I can turn to.

Oct 3, 1991 to Ruby (his adoptive mother)

Dear Ruby

As I write this letter there is deep sorrow in my heart having found out about the lie that you and Charley and your children have lived concerning my adoption. I can't begin to tell you how sorry I am for you as the Lord will make you pay for these lies and the disruption they have caused in my life. I can't see what you hoped to gain by keeping this a secret like you did unless you were afraid you would lose your good help.

The only real thing I can remember about my life with you was the fact you led me to the Lord for which I am very thankful, because there have been many times in my life had it not been for the Lord's loving hand I wouldn't have cared if I had lived or died.

I never had a very exciting life as a child because there was always work to be done. It didn't seem like I got much special attention most of the time as much as Don and Beatrice. One thing to show what I am talking about you never had the courtesy or concern to wait Thanksgiving or Christmas meals for us when it was our turn to have the evening meal with your family and that really hurt my family's feelings. Also Don's and Beatrice's kids always seemed so special to you. Another thing that stays in my mind is how you threw pans of water in my face to stop me from eating dirt, and to this day I'm deathly afraid of water today.

I sincerely believe, you could see the impact this has made on my life today, the shock of knowing I lived right next door to my relatives for 12 years and missing knowing my brother by 6 weeks, I am sure you would feel like you had not made you make the right choice.

There has been a few good things come out of living around Caney was finding the wife and family I have for which I am thankful. Of course you never did like Edith because you knew she was aware of my adoption. What a mistake I made by not listening to Edith and pursuing this things then.

Well Ruby with the good Lord's help maybe I can spend the rest of my days a little bit easier after having all this out in the open.

Oct 4, 1991 to Charlie (adoptive father)

Dear Charlie,

I write this letter to you Charlie I wonder why you kept this from me about my being adopted. It has caused me a lot of heartaches finding this out in my later years and wonder why if you cared for me like Beatrice said you did how you could do this to me. I made a big mistake in staying with you after I graduated because all I had was bad memories and heartaches. I worked hard for you for 20 years and I am about to think that is all you wanted me for.

There were a few good memories about you that I remember about how you used to keep Eva's kids and us and you taught us kids to play cards and dominos and you seemed to care a little bit, more about our children than Ruby did.

There were also some things I remember that didn't set to well with me such as the time you beat me with a broomhandle and sent me upstairs to bed without any supper. Another episode I remember and have held it against you all of my life and that is the time I asked you to co-sign for my note for that Phillip's 66 tank wagon and you refused me, and especially, George Boggs who was 2 years younger than me had his dad co-sign for him and it was a gold mine. I never could understand why you wouldn't do it for me.

Well Charlie I will have to say there weren't many really happy memories for me as an adopted child but I don't know what the future would have held for me and that is a question I'll never know the answer to. I just hope the Lord will help me heal some of these bad thoughts I have because I know they are wrong.

13 Oct 1991 to Flossie (his natural mother)

Dear Mom

I am writing this letter after I have found out about the truth of my family. I can't see how you could stand to give up a baby after you had it for three months and especially keeping this all so secretive about who adopted me, so no one could pursue it. This is probably a question I will never know the answer of but who knows what my life would have been otherwise. I am also sorry to find out you didn't tell my brother Don about me or that he was adopted either, as this left as sad a spot in his heart about it as I have had. My life with the Oyler's wasn't the best but it could have been worse. The good thing that came of it was meeting my wife of 51 years and four wonderful children. The sad part was we lived at Chanute for 12 years and could have known you & Don and my cousins personally. Don's wife said he was so lonely and would have been happy to meet me and my family. Another thing Mom was the fact of you becoming an alcoholic and had you had the love of us children around you this might have never happened. My wife and I have experienced lonliness in our lives when our children were all on their own and we know how frustrating and heartbreaking it can be. I just hope Mom that the good Lord can forgive you for everything and maybe we can meet in heaven someday.

Oct 3, 1991 to Beatrice (adoptive sister 12 years older than my Dad)

Dear Beatrice

I write this letter to you after I find that my real brother died July 31, 1991 just six weeks before I found him. My mother passed away in 1976 so had it not been for so many hard nosed people I could have known both of them. What a heartbreaking situation it has been and I am sure, knowing you, had the shoe been on your foot you would have been so mad you couldn't see straight. The thing I cannot understand is, after your mother and father passed away, why you could look me and my family in the eye and tell us a bare faced lie that you didn't know anything and what you would have had to lose by telling me. We could have had a much better relationship between the two of us but as it is I don't see how you can think that I could call you my sister after having been what I have been through because if that is the way a sister treats a brother she supposedly loves I am proud I didn't have a sister. Judy called me up that time I wrote you that letter and ripped me to pieces over how it tore you up, but I wonder if she has any idea what I have been through since I found this out.

I don't know what your parents hoped to gain by keeping this on such a silent basis but I can tell you one thing it sure didn't make me feel grateful to them. As I look back on my life there were many questions I couldn't understand, but now many of the reasons have been made known, but there are some that I probably never will know the answer to. I can assure you one thing, you say I should honor them for raising me, but I never had what you could call an exciting life as their adopted child. I feel like I was more of a ward to them just as Alice Russell and Claude Dunne were. I had to work hard for what I got which is more than I can say for you and Don.

I remember the times as a child when they would have Ruby's family gatherings, we kids had to wait until the adults ate and we had leftovers. Another thing that stuck in my craw was when it would be our turn to have Thanksgiving or Christmas supper at the Oyler household the meal was always held at noon and when we brought our food for supper we had to eat you people's leftovers.

The Bible tells us we should forgive and forget but for some things even though you might forgive there is a scar there, such as this that you can in no way forget because everytime you look at a scar it reminds you what made it.

I don't have too many years left Beatrice but I hope with the Lord's help and peoples prayers that I can ease some of the hurt I have experienced.

You speak of my having a love and concern for your parents, but with the type of life I gave them such as 20 years of hard work and traveling some distances to pay tribute to their death plus helping to pay for their burial, I feel I have done my share.

BY CAROLYN WHITAKER, DAUGHTER

My father was raised and adopted by the Charles Oyler and Ruby Coltharp family. When they actually got him is not certain, but we know he was just a young infant. Some of the Coltharp family can remember Ruby pushing him down the main street of Caney in a baby buggy. They were residing in Washington Co. Oklahoma on a farm at the time. His adopted sister, Beatrice Oyler Russell, after I had presented the adoption papers to her, she finally told me just prior to her death, that she remembered well the day they got my Dad. She had lost a kitten and Ruby told her not to worry that she was getting a new brother. Beatrice was 12 years old at the time, and said she loved to push Dad around in the buggy up and down the dirt road on the farm.

As a child Dad grew up working on the farm and attending school. He was 8 years old when he started plowing the fields with a team of horses. He often spoke about the hard life he had working on the farm. He would get up at 5 o'clock in the morning, do his chores, and then he would walk to school 3 miles (as we have all heard these stories) in snow knee deep to an Indian, as he would always say. I still marvel in my mind, at the shear survival of these events in the bitter cold weather of walking to school that distance one way. Faced with knowing you had to go home and walk the 3 miles again!! And once home, start the chores all over again.

He attended numerous schools around the area of Caney while in grade school. He then attended junior high and high school at the Caney High School. He had the opportunity for a scholarship to attend business college and turned it down to stay working on the farm with his adoptive parents. He had often regretted not going to college and using the scholarship.

After Dad graduated from high school, his grandpa Coltharp gave him a car, a model A I believe it was. He really thought he was on top of the world when he got that car. And this was the beginning of his future with my mother. He was driving down main street of Caney when he met my mother, while she was walking down the street with a friend. Mom was about 14 years old at the time. He asked them if they wanted a ride, and they obliged the offer. Mom thought Dad was really "loaded" financially driving that fancy car and all!! (Boy was she in for a big surprise) They started dating and would go to dances where the band of Bob Wills and the Texas Playboys would play, go on picnics with friends, play cards, or go to the movies, or swimming. During one summer when Mom was about 16 years old, she was living with her father's sister, Bertha Thompson Fielding, over in Sedan, Kansas, and working for Aunt Bertha throughout the summer. She and Dad corresponded during that time and she was very upset with Dad because he had gone out with another girl. She really told him just how the ole cow ate the cabbage, and told him to get lost. Dad wrote back to her asking for forgiveness and promised he wouldn't do that again. Consequently, Mom and Dad were married on Easter Sunday, March 24, 1940 at the preacher's house in Caney, Kansas. Aunt Beatrice and Uncle Paul were their witnesses. A bit of chivalry took place after the wedding, as my Dad pushed his new bride down the Main Street of Caney in a wheelbarrow.

On my last visit with my Dad a month prior to his death, I discovered that Mom had saved all the love letters she and Dad had written to each other during their courtship. My Dad pulled this 4 or 5 inch thick stack of letters out of this little wooden tool box he had gotten as a child, and began to read them. My sister, Nancy and I asked if they would let us read them. What a great experience it was to share with my parents reading about the years of their young lives, and listen to the stories about what had happened and who they were talking about in the letters. After 60 years of a struggling and difficult marriage, I watched them sit in their chairs as they read the letters and we talked about how much they really must have loved each other when they were married and how much fun they had with their friends. Whenever I would ask them in earlier years how they met, Mom would just tell me "it was none of my business". I was so intrigued to finally be able to hear the story about their courtship after all the years they had been married. They celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary two weeks prior to my Dad's death. We celebrated with all four of their children home at one time together for the first time in 32 years.

After their marriage, they made their home with Dad's parents. They were residing on the old Waller Place (farm) west of Caney in Chautauqua Co. Kansas. Charles and Ruby Oyler ran a dairy farm and farmed the land. They had no electricity and used a wood stove to heat and cook with. The house was quite small and had several screened in porches. Mom and Dad's room was one of these porches. Aunt Beatrice with her husband Paul and their son Nylon Hugh also lived with them. Uncle Don Oyler, dad's adopted brother, also lived with them. He eventually brought his "thought to be wife" Helen Littlefield home to live there as well. (We later found out after 50 some years they were never actually married.) Eventually, Aunt Bea and Uncle Paul moved out on their own. Dad told me that during the summer when it was just like "an oven" in the house, they would pull the hay wagon into the front yard, and drag their mattresses onto it, and sleep outside. During the winter, they would heat bricks and put under their mattresses to stay warm. After seeing the house, I just can't even imagine living in that house during the winter. They just covered the screen with plastic and slept out there!!! They also took showers in the summer outside. They warmed water all day in a large metal tub in the sun, then Dad would devise this makeshift shower using a funnel and pouring the water through it.

My sister, Nancy, and brother, Jerry, were both born in this farm house.

In 1942 Dad was registered with the Draft Board and considered 4F since he was farming and was not required to join the Army during World War II.

After many trials and tribulations within this family, my parents finally decided it was time to move out. They left and moved to what was the old hotel in Havana. Dad went to work for Mormon Feeds at that time selling feed. At some point in time, he starting working on pipe lines.

He was working in Columbus, Kansas when mother was expecting my brother David. She came back to Caney to have David and he was born at Aunt Bea's house in Caney.

When I was born 1948 they were living in the old hotel in Havana, Kansas. I was born at the Scimeca Hospital in Caney.

My father worked on the railroad on the road gang for a time in his life, and I believe it was after I was born. He often spoke of a "Gandy Dancer" when I was growing up. It was the people who laid the track. They used this giant tool which was placed under the rail then lifted up when the rail was ready to be laid into place. The actual name for the group of men laying track is a section gang. The name Gandy dancer came from the movement of the men in unison as they laid track using a machine manufactured by the Gandy Corp. of Chicago. Dad kept the old lantern he used when he worked on what he called the "road gang" for the railroad. Mom gave me the old lantern after dad died.

My Dad was quite the character, and loved to "tease" everybody incessantly. He loved to dish it out, but didn't usually take it very well. He was a hard worker, & had many occupations when I was growing up, but always provided a good home for his family. Many times he would work two jobs to make ends meet. He did drink more than he should have and it caused many problems in his marriage to my mother.

He loved to go dancing, fishing, and camping. There were many a summer day, we would go off fishing together at the local farmers ponds or go down to the river. He was always pretty patient with me when I'd get my clothes hooked on the barbed wire fences, get stuck in the mud, or get my fishing line caught in a snag while he was over on the other side of the pond. We also would go frog giggin and I always got to carry the stringer. I'd get so excited about finding another frog, I'd lay the stringer down and off they'd hop. He'd REALLY yell at me then!! Whenever I heard Dad talking about going someplace, I was always eager to make sure I wasn't left behind.

We always raised a big garden, even after we moved to town. We rented some land from an old woman and put in the garden. I can remember Dad using a push plow before he was able to buy himself a garden tractor. He would lay off the rows with such precision using stakes and a string. He would then plow along the string to make a straight row. The rest of us would follow inserting the seeds, and another following with a hoe to cover them.

Our family, as any other family, has had it trials and tribulations, but my parents worked hard to provide a decent living for us and did the best with what they knew at the time. They raised us to be responsible & honest citizens. Difficulty arose between my father and I when I became an unwed mother. Daddy and I had been very close before, but it seemed he could just never forgive me after my son was born. This tore a huge hole in my heart because I missed the closeness we had once shared. If he had had his wish at the time, I wouldn't have my own son to this day, and believe after we discovered his own adoption, it him right between the eyes.

The stigma that is placed on women for ALL the responsibility of conception in the mind of society is overwhelming to me. The women are ostracized, but whatever happened to the male responsibility, they have no stigma placed on them. I have never regretted the decision I made, in spite of the criticism I have endured through the years, AT LEAST I HAVE MY SON AND HE HAS NO QUESTIONS, BECAUSE I TOLD HIM THE TRUTH. I loved his Daddy and he knows it. He also has had the opportunity to live with his father for a short time of his youth and live as a real family, in spite of the break up later for a second time.

I cannot stress enough the importance of knowing the truth about adoptions. As a child of an adoptee, I feel "cheated" to have not known my biological family, especially since we never were really accepted as true members of an adopted family. I realize not all adoptions happened the ways ours did, but I'm sure the stories such as ours abound in other people's lives.

)o you know to which major "Iler" family these people belong?

iis has been a frustrating and very time consuming project. But once ırted I decided I was going to finish it no matter what! Things change :quently. Websites are continually changing. Here today, gone tomorrow. ɔt only that but you often stumble on pictures here and there as you ɔve around (surf) on the Internet (web). A great many pictures, images :r se, don't bear an "Iler" name but turn up because they are associated ith some record (text) which has the name buried in it somewhere.

ıe fact remains there are a great many pictures to be found on the web. nding them once may be hapstance. Finding some of them a second or bsequent time may be just about impossible.

'ith a few limited exceptions the pictures on the following four pages .... ong with a great many more... were found on the Internet. There is just ɔt enough space to show or list every one.

few pictures may be illusive and hard to find but they are out there. ›me people have been identified to some degree (as shown) but it has not t been possible for me to identify major family to which most of these ːople belong.

ıave several hundred pictures of "Iler's" I have found on the web. When I itial found most of them I saved them by a simple name. Then, when I ıve tried to go back and look them up again to find and record more tails about the person I have all too often not been able to find the cture again. So it is that in some cases I have a picture, and a name, but is all.

ı check out many of these people in more depth you can go to:

click on the "Images" button (above search line, to right of "Web") type the name as shown here in quotes (e.g. "Morgan Iler") or, simply type the surname alone, without quotes, or, the surname followed by a given name, without quotes.

.B.: If you are dead set on finding an illusive picture go to the very last ıge of the images initially displayed and you will usually find a comment ɔout "omitted results". Click on this option. Also, there may be a number images which are not of people per se. Moreover, the person displayed often not the specific person you are looking for. Examine these sites ıd use the Ctrl+F function to search by the surname if needed. This will ten produce pleasantly surprising results.

the following list a picture of the person can be found herewith (pages to 8) where a number precedes the name. If "xx" precedes the name ere is no picture herewith.

Do you know them better than I do?

you know any of these people please share your knowledge of them with e to the extent you can.

Brooks/Eilar: Early Homesteaders

Mary Brooks Gilmore

52282

Eugene Carey Brooks, Margaret Young, and Mary Elizabeth Brouillette Brooks
Probably photographed in Seattle, circa 1907

Eugene Carey Brooks came into the State of Washington from Nanton, Alberta, Canada, in 1906, signing a Declaration of Intention certifying his allegiance to the United States. He stated in it that he was born in Erie County, New York. This was a day in which we think of travel being rigorous in the extreme, but our ancestors seemed to do it with such ease. He had been married in Hot Springs, South Dakota, in his mother's home, on 20 December 1890, to Mary Elizabeth Brouillette (pronounced Bruette—the spelling was changed later by descendants to match the pronunciation). Mary was a native-born Dakotan, the next oldest of the several children of French Canadian parents who came into the Dakota Territories to trade in the Black Hills. Eugene and Mary went back to Canada to homestead with her young son Alex McGraw whom they raised. Alex married and stayed in Nanton. He visited his family in Metaline Falls, staying a couple winters with them, before moving to a homestead ranch north of Great Falls, Montana.

Eugene and Mary brought into Washington State with them Margaret "Maggie" Young, a a young woman they also raised until she and her brother Joe homesteaded near the Brooks family at Metaline Falls. She later married Ray Clough, postmaster at Great Falls. Eugene and Mary named their ranch "Sky High Farm" and Eugene ran what he called "Brooks Landing" on the Pend Oreille River. He then went to work as foreman of nearby quarries and worked on a flume over which people walked as well. Their ranch was the site of much activity. Mary kept a large garden, liberally filled with flowers, as well as vegetables. They opened a place along the river as a sort of hotel for travelers. There began to be many travelers because the location was opening to immigrants developing that area of what was then part of Stevens County.

The 1910 Federal Census shows Eugene and Mary had living in their household her mother Sophie and her brother Peter Bruette. Also there still was Maggie Young. This whole area was within the Ione Precinct.

From left, on the porch of the Brooks's quasi-hotel: Probably Peter Bruette, Mary Brooks's brother; unidentified gentleman and lady; Maggie Young and possibly John (Eilar) Brooks in front of her; Mary Brooks; Eugene Brooks. Seated is W. H. Crawford,

Also in 1910, in the Ione Precinct, John M. Eilar Sr. and his wife Mary Jane Raber Eilar were across the river on their ranch, which they homesteaded from 1909, together with an older son Benjamin, who was employed on the railroad, and their younger sons Hugh D. and John M. Eilar Jr. The Eilars came to Washington State from near Indianapolis, Indiana, to the Summit Valley, near Addy, Washington in 1904. Her Raber family had already come there and urged John and Mary to get a homestead nearby, on which they lived until they sold it to the Rabers and moved north. John M. Eilar Jr. was my father. It was said he was born near Addy on 19 August 1906. There is no birth certificate.

The Eilars notified their daughter Ella Ogle, who lived in Arden, Washington, of their safe arrival on the ranch at the Metalines. They went there by horse and wagon, bringing their belongings with them. Dad always seemed to remember that trip, but was uncertain whether it was because he was told about it or if he actually had some recollection of it. It must have been a grueling experience for the parents. However as a young child, happily on a journey, cushioned between his parents and brother, he probably never thought about the rigors of this journey for his elders, as he realized in later years.

Mary Jane Raber Eilar and John M. Eilar Sr. with daughter Ella on John's lap and son Benjamin H. beside them. Photographed in Indiana before the family came to Washington.

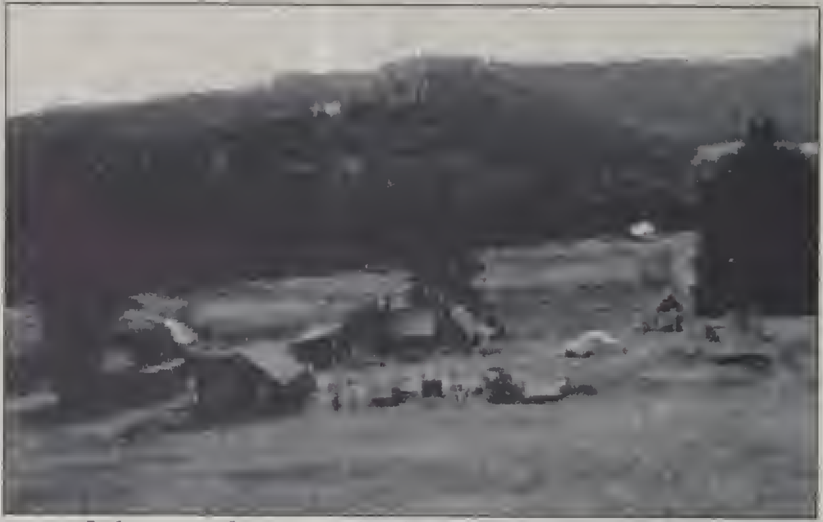
Cabins were built by both Brooks and Eilar families; improvements were made by clearing land, planting trees, and settling in on their homesteads. They made the acquaintance of neighbors, and life must have flowed on fairly reasonably. From their hills they were able to see the railroad, mining, and cement industries develop. Jobs opened and people flowed into the Metalines. My father remembered watching, from the Eilar homestead hill, the construction of the railroad trestle. Now one can look back toward that homestead land from a promontory overlooking that trestle and the present Box Canyon Dam.

Suffering came to the Eilar homestead in 1911, the year of the formation of Pend Oreille County. Dad remembered only the feeling when, on 14 August 1911, his mother died, five days before his birthday. Her family was summoned from Arden and Summit Valley, and she was laid to rest in a clearing about 500 yards above the cabin, leaving the two younger boys to the care of their father. He found it difficult so, following a stay with their Raber family in Stevens County, he placed his two small boys in the "Washington Home in Spokane," according to a small personal item in the 12 October 1911 issue of The Newport Miner. This part of their lives continued until sometime in 1913; another postcard, sent in September of that year to their sister in Arden, says, "Hughie and Johnnie are in school in Spokane." Dad recalled the period as a time of rebellion, and very traumatic on their part, so they were brought back home to the Metalines.



John was born in the log cabin portion of the house; the two rooms on the left were added in later years. Photographed in 1957 at which time F. R. Abely lived there and had the sawmill at the far right.

From then, his memories began to blossom, beginning with his being sent to the new school at Metaline Falls, which is now the Cutter Theatre complex. He loved and respected Mrs. Lillian Bailey, as have generations of school children since. He ran loose, and later described crossing the railroad trestle on foot, Metaline Falls school. John is almost certainly the young boy with the wide, white collar riding on the back of another boy, probably his brother Hugh. Having been among the first students when the building opened, he was pleased to contribute to its preservation and rejuvenation as the Cutter Theatre.

following his brother and friends through the woods to get to school, calling after them to "wait up," and encountering Eugene Brooks, who gave them peanuts, at the Washington Hotel. He described Mr. Brooks in his journal, as "a kindly looking man with a bristly mustache." This impressed him greatly, this large friendly person whose wife then took an interest in the cute, curly-headed boy, seemingly in need of some looking after. Mary Bruette Brooks was a tenacious woman who felt the need to help all her life. She lived her life in the "protection of the stars, with God's guidance." Perhaps because she was a descendant of a King's Daughter (one of nearly a thousand girls who were recruited in France and sent to New France by King Louis XIV to marry the settlers), she never lost the feeling she could tread where angels might fear. She did it with an angel's heart. I remember her well from my own youth.

A Pend Oreille County Judge placed John M. Eilar Jr. in the foster care of Eugene and Mary Brooks. She signed for him under the Eilar name in the school census, they provided for his welfare, three meals a day and in the summer moved them out of the cabin, under the sky and stars to sleep peacefully under a wagon. Dad remembered that hillside as a schoolboy. He recalled the smell, lingering in the area for days after, from the exhaust of the doctor's new vehicle after he had passed by on house calls. He thought that Doctor Schwabland may have owned the first car in the area, and he said it was a Ford.

My dad became the fishing buddy of his Dad Brooks and, along with Dad Brooks's friends and my dad's younger friends, they walked across the flume for picnics during fishing jaunts. John became known to all by the nickname Grandfather Brooks gave him from their earlier meeting, "the peanut man." Dad had a life-long love of peanuts and popcorn, liberally supplied then by a generous foster father and his friends.

Once a school chum of Dad's, a girl who lived higher on the hill, noticed that a cabin roof had caught fire from fireplace embers. The mother of the family ran out, grabbed a pail of fresh milk, which had been sitting nearby, and threw the milk on the fire, extinguishing it immediately. Later a party was held for her and her family with much celebration by the whole neighborhood.

Mary and Eugene Brooks petitioned to adopt my father. Dad's name was legally changed in 1918 to John Eugene Brooks. Mary jumped the date a little when she signed him as John Brooks the year before, in the school census.

CHILDREN between the Ages of Five and Twenty-one Years, Residing in School District No. 2

County, Washington, on the First Day of May, 1917.

Eugene's brother was then living in central New York; they decided to move near him and took their son John, traveling by train. Dad never lost his love for the Metalines or his contact with his own father, brothers Hugh and Benjamin, and sister Ella. He traveled back as many times as he could.

Later, in the peacetime army between the World Wars, he served as a guard at the summer White House in Brule, Wisconsin, for President and Mrs. Coolidge. Following that he traveled a troop ship and was in charge of the ship's daily newspaper during the journey. But a highlight of his duties was the dedication of the Fort Colville Monument in September 1929, to which he was sent with an army detachment from Fort Wright. His sister Ella Eilar Ogle had sent a letter to the Commander requesting her brother be among the detachment. The request was granted, whereupon there was an Eilar reunion during some time off following the ceremony. They had not seen each other for 18 years. The meeting was the subject of a small article among the news reports about the monument in the Colville Examiner, 14 September 1929. It was one of several get-togethers over the years. After discharge, he tried to settle back in the Metalines, but jobs by then were not plentiful for young, unmarried men. So he went back to New York State to see his Brooks parents, who had made the decision to go to Florida. He went to Florida with them for a short time, then came back to New York State, met and married our mother, Doris Mary Secor. After many years of raising a family, they brought their two youngest children on a visit to the Eilar family in Washington, in July 1957.

Thus began an odyssey of our own research, with visits both historical and genealogical, and being involved in an area which we have come to like visiting often. Amazing pictures have survived in the Brooks memorabilia following their deaths. Most all were about their time in the Metalines. They provide a glimpse into the early 1900s of the lovely Selkirk Mountains of northern Pend Oreille County. John E. Brooks happily took his grandchildren to visit the site of his formative years. We have done the same with two of our grandchildren; all remember him. He died 7 May 1999. He maintained membership in the Pend Oreille County Historical Society for many years. He would be pleased to know a portion of the Brooks/ Eilar story is in the Big Smoke.

Herewith are some entries from the lifelong journal of John Eugene Brooks, which he kept in his own hand. He shared some of this with the Pend Oreille County Historical Society when he was a member.

"Among the names of people of my years up to age 11, along Box Canyon Road north of Ione was I believe by first name one John B. Bettencourt, one of the earliest large apple growers nearest Box Canyon. He made cider in large quantities and shipped apples by the wagon load and the box car in barrel and crate. To the north of our Box Canyon homestead lived an elderly couple named Moffit. [Mrs. Moffit] is vivid in memory as 'Grandma Moffit,' others were Hamlins and Kirstines. On east side of river a mile from Metaline Falls was Appel Bros. log-loading siding. On jut of river lived the Perkins family. On Benchland back of Brooks lived an Italian family [by name] of Telliho, who often walked with me down a trail over a mile to Metaline Falls to school. One family of Swedish folks, the Pearsons, had a homestead above Pocahontas Creek on [the] Sullivan Lake trail. She was killed by a runaway horse and buggy in August 1917. I went to her funeral because her son Bernard and I were good friends."

"I can only faintly remember Haley's Comet causing quite an alarm in 1910 because Dad [Eilar] made us stay awhile in our root cellar a morning when the comet's tail passed the earth's system."

"The Brookses had a good friend, Enoch Carr, who was killed in a quarry rock slide Brooks's house, Metaline Falls, built in 1906 near their Metaline Falls Homestead." Eugene was the Executor of the early settler Enoch Carr's estate at the time of Mr. Carr's death, 19 October 1914. It must have been a major undertaking; I since have learned there are 115 pages on file about his estate at the Pend Oreille County Auditor's Office.

Dad described the Brooks cabin on "Sky High Farm." "Most cabins were made of cedar hewn logs and split shakes for roofs. Some were hand hewn, faced inside and varnished, making a very nice home, warm and cozy. Our Metaline Falls homestead of logs had front sitting room, a bedroom and a spacious kitchen with a large window open to a view of north toward British Columbia Mountains. Most of these mountains were above 7000 ft., and snow was on their peaks till middle of summer. We had good cold spring water."

At one point in the 1960's, he brought to mind, "still clear," the following. "A picture of a party in Metaline Falls before 1915, called a 'hard times' party and dance at which my foster parents are shown in some patched-up clothing and everyone in a state of poverty. These doings were usually held in the new school auditorium and some I went along and can remember. Most people of town and surrounding residents attended." His recollections then jumped to describe the trip to the Brooks homestead. "Our road to our homestead by horse and buggy wound around for a fine hairpin turn switchbacks and took over an hour, but walking the trail around the promontory we could make it in half time. As memory backtracks to two generations and living in the first twenty years of our century in States of Washington and New York, there appears an oddity worth mentioning. When we left Metaline Falls, WA, our town had electric streetlights. Coming to Mt. Upton, N.Y. we found yet the kerosene post lamps, still tended each evening." Dad used to talk about how in this small New York town—where I indeed was graduated from high school over 30 years later—the kids picked on him for being from the Wild West. He bragged that "at least there where I came from they had electric street lights."

Later Dad recorded some of the time with the Brooks parents, calling his recollections "Moments to Remember." "Old Pete, Mother's big yard bird, a goose who honked frankly his displeasure at my invasion of his runways and pinched my retreating back sides and grabbed ahold of my fingers as I attempted the protective deflection of his straight necked pursuit."

"Mother Brooks shot a squirrel out of a pine tree and as it dropped to the ground I ran over to pick it up. It looked dead to me, well, Mr. Squirrel had life enough and as his last act, flipped at my fingers and bit a small nip cutting the flesh, but no harm came of it as Mother soaked it good in those days, 'hot iodine.'"

"Another fine moment was the day our Jersey cow arrived by freight from Dalkena, Wash., and Mother and I drove it the mile up our trail to its new log barn. All its hay was shipped in the first year, but the next year Dad cut our lush meadow by hand and I helped Mother haul it on the old reliable stone boat. [It] had a special rack of log and sticks." A stone boat is a low-to-the-ground sledge—basically a sled with wooden runners—so named because it was used to gather stones from the fields, but it had a number of other uses, including gathering grain.

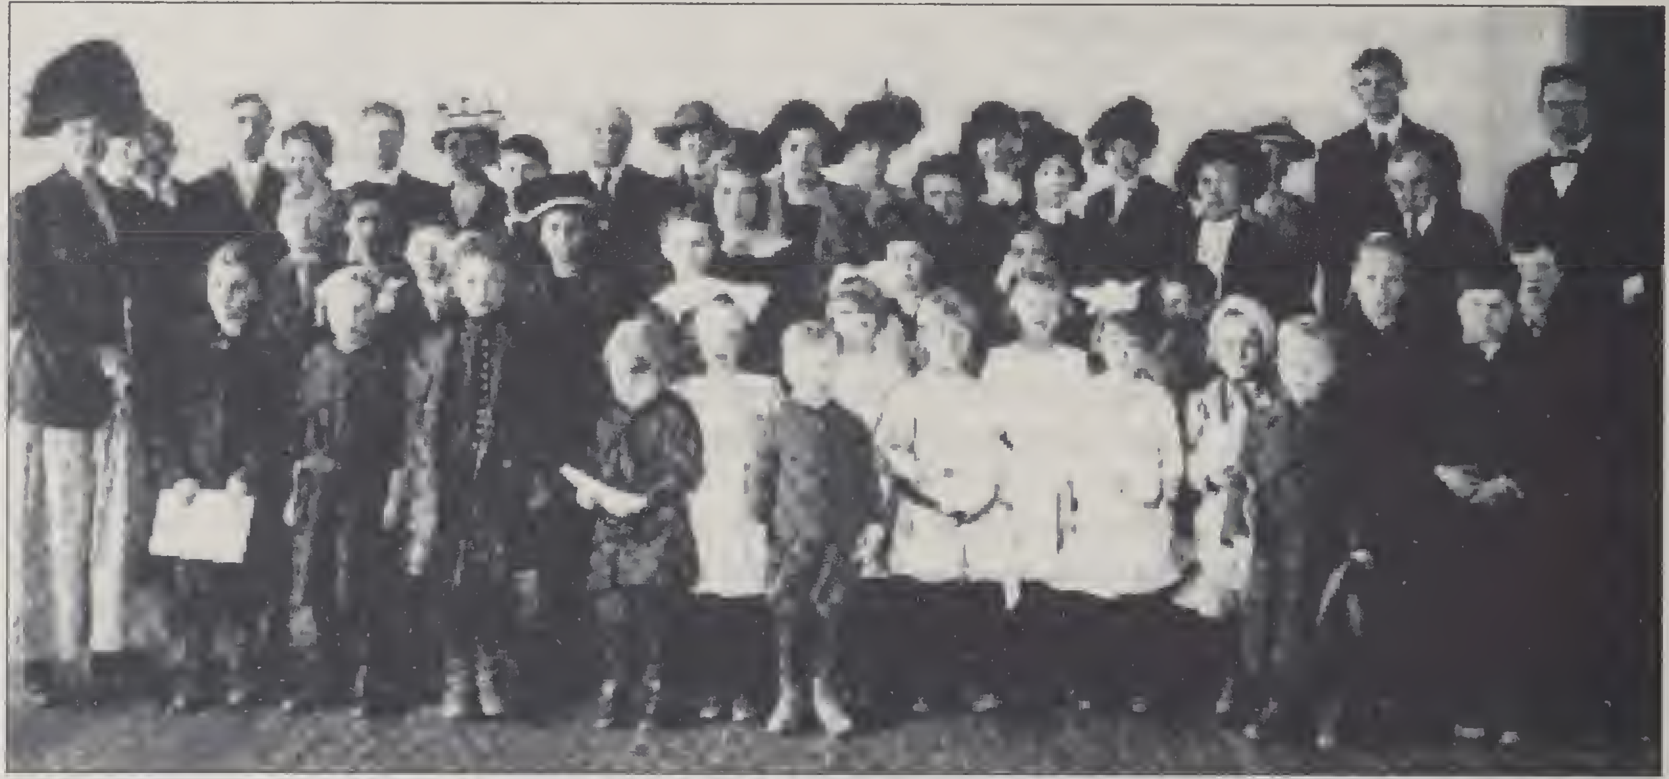
"Going to school was another event. Our mile long trail and half mile walk across town to our new school on [the Pend Oreille] river edge, with its spacious play yards."

"Splitting wood and keeping wood box filled was a job and . . . keeping [the] yard clean." These must have been his jobs as I remember he once complained to me that the Brookses kept him plenty busy, as all children complain about their parents—I know I did, too.

"To the south of the cabin Mother had a clock croquet yard and a pair of double seat swings Dad made. From as early Spring as weather became bearable my folks pitched a tent in [the] yard and slept outside all [the] rest of [the] time till late Fall. They made me a private quarters from a surrey wagon bed and top, between two pines, with drop down side for protection." A bit of encyclopedia research found a form of lawn croquet called "roque," minus the "c" and "t." It uses a more precise, smooth yard (could even be cement, or hard packed dirt) set out with curbing, much like a billiard tabletop on the ground. This would be very unlike the lumps and bumps of lawn croquet. The rules of rouqe require a clock for timing the taking of shots, and it has a different mallet. Since the game itself has French origins, paille-maille, perhaps this was the form my Grandmother Brooks had set out because her own origins were French. I have to qualify this explanation with a "could be," but it sounds plausible.

"The run-off from our storage water barrel was used in summer for irrigation for our sandy garden. We could grow so many fine vegetables and Mother always had such a huge profusion of flowers all around. Truly such memories are so precious now as I approach my mid-fifties. Mother had a small orchard of apple, pear, plum and cherry trees, nicely bearing."

"The night sounds from before sunset, birds, squirrels, small animals and after dark on cool moonlit nights the chilling howl of coyotes in the mountains back of us and the screech of a bobcat. The drumming sound of pheasants at rain times. These sensory reflections of our life out in a 'small corner of the world.' . . . Here before listed some of the memories of our home in a hand built log cabin on a promontory above [the] Pend Oreille River at Metaline Falls, Wash. So short.



Metaline Falls church and Sunday school, circa 1910-1914.

Adults: Mrs. William Love, Arnold Reading (editor), Ev Harland, Rev. Walter Carl Veazie, Lloyd Wageman, Harold Lambright, Mrs. McCready, Clair Griffin, Mr. McCready, Mrs. Cassidy (teacher), Winifred Parson, Lillian Bailey, Mr. Hendershot, Mrs. Reading, Elsie (Mrs. Fred) Pearson, Eva (Mrs. Clark) Newland, Clark Newland, Mr. Crawford (in front of Mr. Newland), Mr. Wageman (hardware man).

Children in back: Swem Larsen (nephew of Louis P. Larsen), unidentified, Bernard Pearson, Helen Milyear, Helen Gregory, Jennie Lundstrum, Ione Love, Eva Griffin, Hugh Eilar. Children in front: Essie Goss, Ardith Griffin, Velma Milyear, Wageman, Lucille Shaw, probably John Eilar, Hendershot, Hugh Dressel (dress with dark belt), Annalou Housman, Helen Oswald Lambly, unidentified, Joe Milyear, Elmer Gregory.

"I have covered the physical and part of mental senses by describing our life, [but] the finest and most enduring as I see it now was the spiritual guidance. Most of the time I walked down on Sunday morning to Sunday school and often stayed to the half-hour preaching service by Reverend W. C. Veazie, of Ione. The denomination as I remember relative to Congregational, but all Protestant faiths attended. My S.S. teacher Mrs. Wm. Love, whose daughter Ione, drowned shortly before I came to the Falls. Among my acquaintances was the adopted daughter of [the] owner of the Pend Oreille lead mines. Miss Giovanna Larsen, who lived at the S.W. end of new [or now, difficult to read Dad's handwriting sometimes] bridge approach in an elaborate cabin." Reverend Veazie sent Dad the first birthday card he ever received, and it is among his memorabilia in this journal.

Also among Dad's memorabilia is a small note to Dad from Mrs. Felix LaSota, in 1973, saying that "a framed photo of Rev. and Mrs. Walter Veazie was received from Dorothy Helwig Yothers, Seattle. Her father was manager of the Cement plant and lived in the former home of Louis Larsen near the river. The Veazies lived in Ione and stopped with the Helwigs when they came to Metaline Falls, for services, every two weeks. She calls them Grandpa and Grandma Veazie, and requested the picture be placed in the Church."

During their married life, my father and mother remained in touch with the Eilar and Brooks families although they lived in distant states. By train or automobile, they traveled as time and money permitted to both Florida and Washington States. They married in New York State and I was born there. Dad was transferred to Tennessee when the silk industry firm he was with needed him there to set up looms and to teach people to work at them. My brother Eugene was born while we were in Tennessee. Later he was transferred to both Pennsylvania and New Jersey, where another daughter Charlotte and son H. James, were born, one in each state. At one time his Eilar brothers asked him to consider changing his name back to Eilar; although I am sure it may have been tempting, because we loved both families, the choice was harder to make by then and my folks decided not to do it. My brothers each have two daughters, my sister has two sons, and I have a son and a daughter. So the name would not have been carried along; the Brooks name is not either.

Typically, he's popping popcorn into his mouth.

There are now eight great grandchildren; John Brooks had the pleasure to know almost all of them. He took special delight in showing the grandchildren his homes and introducing family in Washington. Our daughter remembers a day when she stood on the shore of Sullivan Lake with her grandparents, each of them spontaneously silent for several minutes; she said that all of a sudden it seemed to her "they all were thinking their own thoughts of the beauty in a kind of prayer." Some of our own grandchildren had special moments with their great grandfather, some of which were captured in photographs. My parents came back to New York State after there had been a work slow down following World War II. His silk industry job, which had provided service ribbons and parachute straps, gave way to synthetic materials such as rayon and the company was closed. They opened a dry goods business in Mt. Upton, New York, close toour maternal grandparents. The general area of their youth (Mother's all her life and Dad's when his Brooks parents brought him East) became home again.

The memories of contact with Eilar aunts and uncles in Washington State over the years bring to mind times such as a beautiful little dress sent when my sister was born. Then memories of our Brooks grandparents, especially Grandma Brooks's coming in with our maternal grandparents who brought her the rest of the way from her train from Florida, surprising us all. Then the story our mother told about when she first met Grandpa Eugene Brooks in Florida, how he asked Dad if he could hug her, and promptly did. She always said when she first met Dad's Eilar brothers in Washington how they resembled Dad so much, she was startled, only that he was "a taller version of them." One family per parent is usual. We had two from Dad, our unique blessing!

I am from Anderson Indiana. My family (Landes) must have been great friends with some Ilers who lived in or around Anderson.

While looking through old pictures I found the following pictures taken around 1900 plus or minus 10 years.

If you know anything about these people, please let me know. I would be willing to E-Mail Scanned copies to people related to these individuals.
Ada Iler, taken at Dandys in Anderson.
Mrs. Iler (Older woman) taken at McKown, Down Floor Studio, 12th and Meridian Sts., Anderson Indiana.
Alice Iler taken at Acme Studio, South Main St., Between 11th and 12th, Anderson Indiana.

In all there are about 7 pictures as some are duplicates. I would like to know if there are common relations between the Landes's and Ilers.

Ray Oyler, ex-Pilot, dies of heart attack

Ray Oyler, the good-glove shortstop of the Seattle Pilots in 1969, died of a heart attack Monday night at his Redmond home. He was 43.

Oyler was selected by the Pilots from the Detroit Tigers in the expansion draft of 1968 because of his fielding. He had batted only .135 for the Tigers that year.

His problems at the plate prompted a KVI disk jockey, Bob Hardwick, to promote a club to help Oyler with the bat in 1969. It was not of great help. Ray hit .165 for the Pilots, but did increase his home-run production from one with the Tigers to seven in Sicks' Stadium.

After the 1969 season, the Pilots traded Oyler, plus Diego Segui, a pitcher, to the Oakland A's for another pitcher, George Lauzerique, and an infielder, Ted Kubiak. Early in the 1970 season, Oyler was sold by the A's to the California Angels. That was his last active season.

Oyler fell in love with the Seattle area and made his home here since 1969. In the first two seasons of the Mariners, Oyler pitched batting practice for the Tigers when they came to the Kingdome.

Before retiring from baseball, Ray was a player-coach for Hawaii of the Pacific Coast League in 1973. At the time of his death, he was employed by the Boeing Company. Previously, he had managed a bowling alley in Bellevue.

Oyler is survived by his wife, Joanne, and two daughters, Kathleen of Redmond and Cynthia Seaman of Kent. Rosary will be at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the Green Funeral Home in Bellevue. Mass of Christian Burial will be at 10 a.m. Friday at St. Louise Church in Lake Hills.

HOW TO ASSEMBLE
Multi-tier Chart

DON'T HURRY THE JOB - TAKE YOUR TIME

1. Sequentially number the sheets (on the back with pencil) before you start the project. Use extreme care and have unlimited patience. Have ample work space, preferably a large table.

2. Very Carefully trim off the edges - top and left, excluding the edges on the first page and the top edge on the top row. Use a sharp knife and a metal ruler if at all possible, or other suitable straight edge, or use scissors. Alternatively, very carefully use a paper cutter to trim the marked edge(s) off required sheets.

>>>>>>> Good precision cuts will go a long way towards a good looking chart. <<<<<<<
And, precision cuts will also make matching adjacent sheets and rows much easier.

3. To glue the sheets together, if available, use a clear glue such as Flora Craft "Styroglue" (a clear glue for Styrofoam). A stix glue or Elmer's white glue are acceptable but will require more careful use and may not give as good an end-result.

4. Very carefully match adjacent horizontal sheets. Glue and press horizontally adjacent sheets, one sheet at a time, firmly together. Be sure to keep a straight edge across the top. Let the glue set a few moments before handling and proceeding to the next sheet or horizontal row of sheets.

5. Proceed in much the same manner to glue together the horizontal sections. After the chart is fully assembled scotch tape can be used on the back if desired to reinforce the gluing.

Good luck. It is not what can be called an easy, simple job.

NOTE: If any program imperfections (bugs) are found in the chart they are not thought to be serious enough to prevent enjoyment of viewing the chart "as is" and/or with some carefully made manual corrections. Some connecting lines may be missing (or improperly shown). Missing lines can be drawn in (added) with a black pen. Bic "Wite-Out" can be used to hide unwanted/improper lines, if any.

RE: Bowers Family Tree – 2003 Family Reunion

Dear Shiela:

Mom and Dad gave me the copy of the "Bowers Family Tree" you produced for James Charles Bowers. You did a great job.

Mom, Dad, Rosan and I are disappointed we weren't able to attend the reunion. The reports we got were that you had a great time. Maybe next time.

I will go through your information and give you supplemental material to help you with your family tree research.

My father-in-law, Morgan Iler, is very interested in family tree research and has developed an extensive family tree for his Iler family and has done some preliminary work on the Bowers side of the family. I will ask Morgan to prepare the Bowers portion of the tree in a format that is compatible with "Family Tree Maker." The software he normally uses is "The Master Genealogist, Gold Edition."

I will work on putting this information together so that you can have it in time to produce "The Second Edition" by this Christmas. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Very truly yours,

Jim Bowers
